NOTES.

1. The Post master general may expedite the mails & alter the times of arrival & departure at any time during the continuance of the contracts, he stipulating an adequate compensation for any extra expense that may be occasioned thereby.

2. Fifteen minutes shall be allowed for opening & closing the mails at all offices where no particular time is specified.

3. For every thirty minutes delay (unavoidable accidents excepted) in arriving after the time prescribed in any contract, the contractor shall forfeit one dollar; & if the delay continues until the departure of any depending mail, whereby the mails destined for such depending mail lose a trip, an additional forfeiture of five dollars shall be incurred.

4. Newspapers as well as letters are to be sent in the mail; & if any person making proposals, desires to carry newspapers, other than those conveyed in the mail, for his own emolument, he must state in his proposals for what sum he will carry with the emolument, & for what sum without that emolument.

5. Should any person making proposals desire an alteration of the times of arrival & departure above specified, he must state in his proposals the alteration desired, & the difference they will make in the terms of the contract.

6. Persons making proposals are desired to state their prices by the year: Those who contract will receive their pay quarterly in the months of August, November, February & May, in one month after the expiration of each quarter.

7. No other than a free white person shall be employed to convey the mail.

8. When the proposer intends to convey the mail in the body of a stage carriage, he is desired to state it in his proposals.

9. The Post master general reserves to himself the right of declaring any contract at an end whenever three failures happen, which amount to the loss of a trip each.

10. The contracts for the above routes are to be in operation on the first day of April next, & are to continue in force for two years.

LAND FOR SALE,
By the Subscribers.

IN Northumberland county—800 acres called Exeter Lodge, residence of the late Col. John Gordon; good farming land, adapted to the growth of corn, wheat and tobacco. On this tract which lays on Yeocomico, a branch of Potomac river, there is a large brick dwelling house, within 200 yards of navigable water, abounding with oysters, equal to any in Virginia; fish and wild fowl in abundance, and remarkably healthy situation.

In Fauquier county—about 200 acres wood land, adjoining Mrs. James and Mr. Eustace, near Elk Run Church.

In Caroline county—2700 acres, being part of what is called Beverly Chace.

In Spotsylvania county—100 acres wood land, adjoining Col. Joseph Brock, Messrs. J. Brock and S. Schoolers. Also, the middle tenement in the brick buildings in the town of Fredericksburg.

In Culpeper county—960 acres, joins Landon Carter, esqr. farm on Rappahannock river, at Norman's Ford—815 acres, adjoining Wm. C. Carter, esq and Col. M Green. Two thirds of this tract is in wood, and the whole of equal quality to any high land in the county. Also about 1100 acres in the Little Fork, laid out and rented in small farms.

In Albemarle county—that elegant and well known place called Blenheim; containing, by a late survey, 4900 acres, which will be sold altogether, or divided in Lots to suit purchasers.

The whole or any part of the above property will be sold on very low terms, payable one third in cash or country produce, on giving deeds; and for the balance long credits will be given, payment being secured on the property.
