Sixteenth, Proposals will also be received as aforesaid, for the supply of all rations, which may be required by the United States, for the troops which are or may be stationed, marched or recruited within the town of Springfield in the state of Massachusetts, and for the armourers and other persons employed, in the United States' armory at that place, from the 1st day of January 1808 to the 31st day of December in the same year, both days inclusive.

A ration to consist of one pound, and one quarter of beef, or three quarters of a pound of pork, eighteen ounces of bread or flour, one gill of rum, whiskey or brandy and at the rate of two quarts of salt, four quarts of vinegar, four pounds of soap, and one pound and a half of candles to every hundred rations. The prices of the several component parts of the ration shall be specified; but the United States reserve the right of making such alterations in the price of the component parts of the ration aforesaid as shall make the price of each part th[illegible] of be[illegible] a just proportion to the proposed [illegible] hole ration. The rations are to be i[illegible] in [illegible]ch quantities, that there shall at all times, during [illegible] term of the proposed contract be sufficient for the consumption of the troops at Michilimackinac, Detr[illegible] Chikago for six months in advance; and at each of the other posts on the western waters for at least three months in advance, of good and wholesome provisions, if the same shall be required. It is also to be permitted to all and every of the commandants of fortified places or posts, to call for, at seasons when the same can be transported, or at any time in case of urgency such supplies of like provisions in advance, as in the discretion of the commandant shall be deemed proper.

It is understood that the contractor is to be at the expence and risk of issuing the supplies to the troops, and that all losses sustained by the depredations of an enemy or by means of the troops of the United States, shall be paid by the United States at the price of the articles captured or destroyed as aforesaid, on the deposition of two or more persons of creditable characters and the certificate of a commissioned officer, stating the circumstances of the loss, and the amount of the articles for which compensation shall be claimed.

The privilege is understood to be reserved to the United States of requiring that none of the supplies, which may be furnished under any of the proposed contracts, shall be issued, until the supplies which have been or may be furnished under contracts now in force, have been consumed; and that a supply in advance may be always required at any of the fixed posts on the seaboard, or Indian frontier, not exceeding three months.

H. DEARBORN,
Secretary of War.

PUBLIC SALE.

BY order of the Orphan's court of Prince George's county, will be exposed at Public Sale, to the highest bidder, at the farm lately occupied by Mr Richard Cramphin, and at his late dwelling in the town of Bladensburg, on Tuesday the 10th day of March next if fair, if not the next fair day.

All the Personal estate of the said deceased (except the crop of Tobacco) consisting of a number of valuable servants, among whom are some excellent house and kitchen servants, the stock of horses, two of which are very pleasant saddle horses, mules, cattle, sheep and hogs, plantation utensils of every kind, about 160 barrels of corn, 150 bushels of clean rye, upwards of 20,000 weight of hay, a large crop of well saved straw, &c. &c. Likewise the unexpired term in a lease for 110 acres of land, granted on the 31st day of May 1714 for ninety-nine years, being six years after the 31st day of May next. This property lies about one mile west of Bladensburg, directly on the old road to Georgetown and contiguous to the fine property of Wm D. Diggs. The improvements are sufficient for the accommodation of a family of middling size and for the advantageous cultivation thereof; there are twenty six bushels of wheat seeded upon it and about 8 or 10 acres in thrifty clover, and a sufficiency of wood it is believed for its support—a further description is deemed unnecessary, as it is presumed that those who wish to buy will view the property previous to the sale. An indisputable title will be given. And at the dwelling in Bladensburg, a variety of articles of Household & kitchen Furniture, several volumes of valuable books, prints, maps and other articles too tedious to mention. The sale will commence on the farm, at 10 o'clock in the morning, and continue from day to day, till all is sold. Terms of sale are a credit of twelve months for all sums above ten pounds, the purchaser or purchasers to give bond, with two good and sufficient securities, carrying interest from the day of sale, and for all purchases to the amount of ten pounds and under the cash is to be paid. No property will be delivered until previously paid, or bonded for as above.

Valuable Property for Sale.

IN pursuance of an order of Washington county court, will be offered at public sale on the premises, on the 16th of March next, the real estate of Richard Cromwell, esq. late of said county, deceased, unless disposed of at private sale in the mean time.

THIS Valuable tract of Land lies on Conococheague creek, about 7 miles from Hagerstown, contains upwards of 1300 acres, and is at present occupied in four plantations.

Number 1. The late residence of the said Richard Cromwell deceased, contains about 450 acres; it has the advantage of a fine stream of water running through it, on which there is a SAW MILL erected—the soil is productive, and there is 50 or 60 acres in meadow, and 130 acres or upwards still in timber. The improvements and other advantages of this farm are superior to most in the neighborhood, and for a stock farm it is surpassed by none in the county.

Number 2, at present in the occupation of Oliver Cromwell, and divided from the former by Conococheague creek, contains 340 or 350 acres—the soil is productive, the improvements neat and comfortable, and there is from 130 to 150 acres of it still in woods which is covered with timber of a very superior quality.

Number 3, adjoining the first mentioned tract, at present in the occupation of Richard Cromwell, contains 250 acres or upwards; the soil is rich and productive, it is well timbered and possesses the advantage of a never failing stream of water running through it on which there is an excellent MILL SEAT, adjoining the public road from Mercersburg to Williamsport, 8 or 9 miles from the latter place—the improvement, are a Dwelling house and Stables.

Number 4, containing 250 acres or upwards—the improvements are a good comfortable Log house and barn—there is about one hundred acres in cultivation, including 12 or 15 acres of good timothy meadow—the remainder is covered with fine thriving timber—this tract adjoins the first mentioned plantation, and is all good farming land—also, one undivided half of about 80 acres of timber land, lying on both sides of Conococheague creek, and adjoining the last mentioned tract; the greater part is creek bottom, is well timbered and embraces a good site for a mill on Conococheague. There is a good spring of water on each of the above plantations. The whole will be sold together or in separate plantations, as may be most suitable to those wishing to purchase. The terms will be, one third of the purchase money to be paid on the first day of April next, at which time possession may be had, and the balance to be paid in six equal annual payments. Any person wishing to purchase at private sale, may make application to any of the commissioners or to Messrs. Oliver and Richard Cromwell, who will shew the lands to any person inclining to purchase.
