C. Dear Dr. Gilbert:

Your letter and the books and papers which you were kind enough to lend me have arrived safely, and I am engaged in making alterations in the script. Presently you shall see this.

I deeply appreciate your expression of personal regard. I feel sure that we are going to have a fine picture, and that you and all of your family will consider it worthy of the great man and woman whose story it tells.

Kindest regards to Mrs. Grosvenor and yourself.

Sincerely yours, Lamar Trotti Lamar Trotti LT RH
