INTRODUCTORY REMARKS.

To the living descendants of Thomas Greene, known in Malden, in his day, as Thomas Greene, Senior, the compiler offers this imperfect sketch of his posterity. He has prepared it, not to be published, but to gather up, for the benefit of the family, the perishing fragments that remain to tell us of a worthy and honored ancestry. He has been induced to undertake the task—not in the hope of sharing an overgrown estate of some deceased relative across the Atlantic—but, partly, because he has had facilities for access to original sources of information,—partly from a desire to know who and what our ancestors were, and to see a more permanent record of them,—partly to bring to each other’s acquaintance a large circle of relatives, whom time and distance have sadly estranged,—partly as a tribute of grateful respect to the memory of those whose industry and frugality, whose privations and sufferings, whose patriotism and piety, have bequeathed to us our richest inheritance,—and partly to ask of all, those whom these pages may reach, an earnest endeavor to collect and communicate any information which may enable him to fill up vacancies, to supply defects in the records, to correct any errors in names, places, dates, or facts, and thereby render complete a work which, at best, is but fairly begun.

It is not known at what time our common ancestor came to this country. There are no indications of his residence in Malden earlier than 1649; yet he might have resided elsewhere in this country several years previous to his removal to that place. A Thomas Greene was residing in Ipswich in 1648, and another in Roxbury at the same time. It is not improbable that these both removed to Malden about that time, making the two by that name mentioned on page 7. Among the passengers on board the ship Speedwell, of London, for Virginia, May 28, 1636, was Thomas Greene, 24 years old. He could scarcely have been our ancestor, for the first child of the latter was probably born as early as 1628. Also a Thomas Greene came in the ship Paull, from London, bound to Virginia, July 6, 1635. It is doubtful whether either of these settled in New England.
Nothing has yet been discovered which determines the place of his residence in England. There prevails among the Leicester branch an opinion, founded at least upon a plausible tradition, that Capt. Samuel Green [16], one of the first settlers of that town, secured for it the name Leicester, in honor of the County of Leicester, whence his father and grandfather came. Indeed, some of the old papers which have come down through several generations, state it as a fact that the family came from Leicestershire, England.

Thomas Greene was a farmer, and, so far as is known, nearly all of his sons and grandsons were engaged in the same occupation. But with the fourth generation commenced a diversity of employment. Rev. Thomas Green of Leicester was both a physician and a preacher. A very large proportion of his descendants have been either physicians or apothecaries. The legal and clerical professions have been well represented, especially among the descendants of Thomas, William, and Henry. Although the family, as a whole, have not been rich, yet several of its members have possessed ample fortunes, and most have acquired a competency.

In the collection of facts here embodied, all mere tradition has been rejected, or recorded only as such. Nearly all has been taken from public or private documents of undoubted authenticity. The county records of Middlesex and of Worcester, and the town records of Malden, Charlestown, Stoneham, Reading, Woburn, Leicester, Petersham, Hubbardston, Killingly, Ct., and Berwick, Me., have been carefully examined. Old family papers in the hands of Judge William N. Green of Worcester, of Hon. James S. Green of Princeton, N. J., and those preserved by the late Ebenezer Greene of Belchertown, Mass., have furnished important facts. Many dates and much useful information have been derived from gravestones in the old cemeteries of Malden and Stoneham. The statistics of the more recent families have been obtained chiefly by a correspondence with living members. The principal facts, so far as obtained, may be relied upon as strictly correct.

No attempt has been made to trace the posterity of the female branches, although many of them have been received and noted. The consecutive numbering has been applied to none but such as bear the name of Green. It was intended originally to make pretty full records of the first four generations, and then to trace to living descendants such families as could be easily obtained; thus making a pamphlet of some twenty or thirty pages, containing some 200 or 300 names. This, it was hoped, would be a sufficient guide to any among the different branches to trace back their families to our common ancestor. But continued investigation, with such additional aid as was at length obtained, brought to light family after family, so that instead of 200 or 300 names, the number has reached fully 1000; and instead of twenty or thirty pages, the sketch now contains eighty. Much information was obtained after the manuscript was handed to the printer, as will be seen on pages 30 and 31. If all the posterity of Thomas Greene, during the lapse of two hundred years, could be enumerated, that of the female as well as the male branches, it would be "as the stars of the sky in multitude."

The defects of this sketch will be readily discovered. In some cases, parts of families are omitted for want of records; in others, whole families, even for several generations. No living representative of Dea. John Greene* [4] has yet been found. Of all the branches, the sketch of the posterity of Thomas* [3] is most complete,—the principal deficiency occurring in the family of Solomon* [150]. With a few exceptions, the history of the family of William Green* [6] is well made out. Only two children of his second son, Isaac* [23], have been found. There were, undoubtedly, many more. With these two the record ends. Where are the descendands of his eldest grandson, William* [28] of Leicester? One only of the four sons of the individual last named has been traced to living representatives. Take, again, the branch of Lieut. Henry* [7]. His eldest son removed to Killingly, Conn., a fact not ascertained till it was too late to trace out his very numerous posterity. Various other omissions, of a minor character, will be found in many of the families which are best made out.

From all that has been gathered thus far, it seems most probable that our progenitor, with his wife Elizabeth, and at least three of his children, came over among the early settlers of the Massachusetts Colony; that he remained temporarily in some one of the new settlements, perhaps Ipswich, till about 1649 or 1650, when he removed to the northern part of Malden, (now Melrose,) the southern part having been already occupied by settlers from Charlestown; that there he came into possession of his farm, consisting of "meadow, broken, upland, and waste land, being by estimation 63 acres, with the meadow at Ensign Lyndes," (Thomas Greene's Inventory;) and that, with him, or near him, were living all his children, except Hannah, who married...
Joseph Richardson, and removed to Woburn. His farm was situated just east of the present site of the Stoneham railroad station. Here was the "old mansion house," with its "parlor" furnished with "a bedstead, a featherbed, one boulster, one pillow, 3 curtains, a Valliance, one chest, 2 pair of sheets & two blankets, 5 napkins and one little table cloth, 6 chairs, one great chest, one box, 2 cushions, one Cosleat compleat, one Musquet, one table, one Wollen Wheele & one old warming pan;" also a "little chamber," furnished with "two flock beds, coverlett, blanket &c;" also "Samuel's chamber," containing "one feather bed, one straw bed, Rugg, Box & bed stead (half headed);" also a "Hall" containing "4 pewter dishes, one candle sticke, one salt sellar, two skilletts, one iron pott, pott hook & kettle, 4 great trays & 4 little trays, one Doz. Trenchers, one salt box, one grate, two payles, one half bushell, one old pillion & saddle, Tramell, tongs, cleaver & Spitt;" also a "Leantoe," containing "a fox trap and a Bracke;" and, finally, a "cellar," containing "one meal trough, one Bear barrell, a grindstone, winch, Hough & Smoothing irons, a Scythe-snath & knife," as well as sundry other articles. The same inventory which gives us this information tells us that he had "four oxen, five cows, one bull a year & vantage, one mare, one horse, six sheep, the half of eleven swine," some fifty "bushells" of grain, and that the "house, out-housing, orchard, and all the land belonging there unto," was valued at £179.12, the whole estate being estimated worth £285.18.2. It is evident, from deeds on record at East Cambridge, that his sons and grandsons purchased lands in the immediate vicinity of the "old mansion house;" so that, though many of them are recorded as belonging to Stoneham (called "Charlestown End" before 1725) and Reading, they were yet not far distant from the old homestead. About 1716, or perhaps a little earlier, the family began to separate. Samuel* [16] and his three kinsmen, William* [56], Nathaniel* [60] and Jabez* [86], removed to Leicester, which afterwards became a radiating centre, sending off many branches in every direction, and to almost every State in the Union. It is highly probable that Isaac* [23] left Malden at an earlier period, as the record of his family ends with the birth of William* [62], in 1696, though we find him living in 1708. No clue has yet been found to lead to the place where he settled. Henry* [28] removed to Killingly, Conn., with his large family of children. In this place his family settled; and we have obtained only imperfect records of five of his eight sons. The children of his brother Jacob* [34] also went to reside in Killingly, with their mother, after her marriage with John Barrett. Killingly, therefore, became another important centre from which the family spread. Again, David [267] removed to Amherst, N.H., where he settled and left children. Jacob [99] and Benjamin [101] removed, about 1745, to Hanover, N. J., where they left many descendants. From these and various other points the family has sent off branches, till now they may be found in nearly every State in the Union, and almost every quarter of the globe.

Much aid and encouragement in the preparation of this sketch have been received from Dr. John Green and Hon. William N. Green, of Worcester, who have both, for many years, taken a deep interest in this kind of research. The sketch of the posterity of Rev. Thomas Green [48] of Leicester, especially through his son, Dr. John, has been furnished by the latter of these gentlemen. Ashbel Green, Esq., and Drs. Horace and John W. Green of New York city, Dr. Henry P. Green of Madison, N. J., Rev. T. T. Tuttle of Rockaway, N. J., Dr. Daniel Green of Auburn, Mass., Dr. George B. Green of Windsor, Vt., Mrs. Maria Barber of Cambridge, Vt., Mrs. Knowlton of East Douglas, Mass., Ephraim J. Green of Newport, Me., William K. Greene of Amsterdam, N. Y., Samuel D. Greene of East Cambridge, Mass., and Otis Green of Spencer, Mass., have all made useful contributions to the information embodied in this sketch.

But to the Rev. John A. Vinton of South Boston is the compiler especially indebted for most of the facts respecting the Stoneham and Reading Greens. His own researches into the Vinton family had carried him back to Thomas Green, as the grandfather of Hannah (Green) Vinton, the wife of his progenitor's oldest son, John Vinton of Maiden. He kindly offered the results of his investigations; nay, more, made additional examinations of the records, and subsequently assisted in reducing his own as well as the compiler's notes to the form which they assume both in this pamphlet and in the volume of the "Vinton Memorial." To his experience and skill in antiquarian matters the reader will be much indebted for the order, accuracy, compactness, and comparative completeness of this sketch. The plan of the work was furnished by him; likewise the Appendix, and the copious Indexes at the close. His own book is a fine specimen of family history; and, as it involves so much of the history and biography of our earliest times, it cannot be uninteresting to the general reader. But to the descendants of Thomas Green it is of special interest, being as much the history of the posterity of Hannah Green [15] as of that of John Vinton.

EXPLANATIONS.

The plan of this Sketch is simple. The families are arranged in the order of seniority in their several generations, Thomas Green himself, the original emigrant, being considered the first. The generation of any individual is indicated by the exponent or superior number above and at the end of his name. Thus, in John Green*, page 49, the figure 6 shows him to be of the 6th generation; while the names and figures in the parenthesis show at once a whole line of descent. The mark of interrogation, placed in parenthesis thus, (?) is to be read, information wanted. It is especially hoped that the silent plundings will be promptly heeded.

Previous to the year 1725, two methods of reckoning time existed in Great Britain and her Colonies. According to one of these methods the year began on the 20th of March, February being the twelfth month; this was the civil or legal year. According to the other method the year began on the 1st of January, December being the twelfth month; this was the historical year. In old records these two methods were frequently combined. Thus, Jan. 13, 1725-6; which means that the year was 1725 of the civil, but 1726 of the historical reckoning. In some cases between January 1 and March 25 only one reckoning is for the most part to be added, to make the record conform to our present usages. In the following pages both of these methods are used; a practice which is called "double dating." This has been done to prevent mistakes; and with this explanation, it will be perfectly clear.

In the ensuing sketch there is a consecutive numbering from the original emigrant through the generations of his recorded descendants; excluding all but leading family names. This numbering is on the left hand of the page, and stands before the name of each individual in the genealogical series.

This mark (.) following a consecutive number, and immediately before a person's name, denotes that the person will be subsequently noticed, and a further account of him given, in a distinct and subsequent paragraph. The place where this is done will be found by looking for the consecutive number when it afterwards occurs in heavy type, like this [510], in the middle of a line, and occupying a line by itself. See page 21, near the bottom. Generally, but not always, this mark (.) denotes that the person whose name precedes had a family; which family will be found as already directed.

When figures occur after a person's name, thus, Jonathan Green [177], these figures enable the reader to find the individual in his place in the series as indicated by the consecutive numbering.

When a woman's name occurs in this fashion, Elizabeth (Hills) Green, the reader will understand the name in parenthesis to be her original or maiden name, and the name following it to be the name acquired by marriage.

When deeds or probate records are referred to, thus, "Midd. Deeds, 16: 593," the figures before the colon (:) denote the book, and the figures after the colon denote the folio, where the deed or other instrument quoted may be found on record.

Midd. stands for Middlesex; Suff. Suffolk; Worc. Worcester; &c.

Names of persons are indicated, as such a year of a person's life had been completed, also signifies "in the year of one's life," &c., and signifies that the year of his birth had not been completed at the person's death.

b. signifies born; m. married; d. died.

a. denotes daughter; m. unmarried.

(1) indicates uncertainty in what precedes.

When a town is named without specific indication it to be universally known, as Philadelphia or Providence.

In one or two places the consecutive numbering will be found interrupted, both in the individuals are placed elsewhere in the series.

To find an individual recorded in this sketch: Suppose it to be John Green, who married Polly Richardson. There are nearly forty John Greens recorded in this sketch. This John was born in 1778. Find the name John among the Christian names of the Greens in Index I, preceded by 1778, the year of his birth, and followed by 510, his consecutive number. The number 510 will at once direct to paragraph 510 in the middle of the page, his name is found. By a similar process may his wife be found by consulting Index II. You perceive that John Green, above whose name, in the middle of the line, you find 510, is in heavy type. This directs to 510 in the consecutive numbering on the left hand of the page, where you find that John Green was the son of Thomas Green, &c., in Left and by 1778. Turn back to 499 in the consecutive numbering, and you find his father, Rev. Thomas Green, [33]. In like manner you may trace any one to the original emigrant, Thomas Green.
FAMILY OF THOMAS GREENE.

There were many other families of the name of Green, or Greene, among the first settlers of New England. BARTHOLOMEW GREENE, whose wife was Elizabeth, came to America about 1630; and settled in Cambridge with his children, Samuel, Nathaniel, and Thebe. His son Samuel had a family of nineteen children. Two of the sons of this Samuel were printers, as were many of their descendants. Samuel Greene, a printer, and a descendant of this family, was residing in Hartford, Ct., in 1855.

Rev. Henry Greene, first minister of Reading, resided some time in Watertown; freeman, 1640; ord. at Reading, Nov. 5, 1645; d. Oct. 11, 1648. He is spoken of as "the father of Reading," incorporated 1644.

John Greene, of Salem, went to Providence 1638, afterwards to Warwick, and is the ancestor of Gen. Nathaniel Greene, distinguished in the Revolution.

John Greene, a ruling elder of the church in Charlestown, was born in London; came to this country 1638, and died May 22, 1658. His Will, dated the previous April, mentions wife Jane, sons John and Jacob, and dau. Mary Greene; also Elizabeth Greene, Jacob's wife, and Jacob's two sons, Jacob and John. Joseph Greene, and Elizabeth his wife, were of Weymouth, 1653.

Nathaniel Greene, Cambridge, was freeman 1645.

Percival Greene and Ellen, his wife, came to this country in 1635, each at the age of 33, and settled in Cambridge. They had a son John, b. June, 1636, who, Oct. 20, 1636, m. Ruth, dau. of Edward Mitchelson.

Felt Hills in Ipswich & Henry Green, 1642, and a Thomas Greene, 1648. Probably these were brothers. The last named was, it can hardly be doubted, the ancestor of the family included in the following sketch.

Another Thomas Greene lived in Roxbury in 1648. He may have been the Thomas Green, a. 15, who embarked in the Hopewell for New England, April 2, 1635. His mother, widow Green, if we mistake not, appears on Roxbury Ch. Records as a member of that church. Her husband appears to have died before she left England. This Thomas seems to have removed to Malden.

Thomas Greene came from London in the Faulk, Leonard Beete, master, bound to Virginia, July 6, 1635.

Thomas Greene came May 28, 1636; m. in the ship Speedwell, Joseph Chappell, master, from London.

Three families of the name of Greene were resident in Malden, at its incorporation in 1649. James Greene, freeman 1647; had wife, Elizabeth and a son John, who is known in the records as "John Green of the Hill," and who d. in 1703, leaving wife Mary, and only son Samuel. From these three, descended James D. Greene, Esq., who was mayor of Cambridge in 1853.

Besides the Thomas Greene, whose descendants are, many of them, included in the following sketch, there was another Thomas Greene, whose Will, dated Feb. 25, 1673-4, and proved 16th June following, we find on record, Midd. Prob., 4:110. His first wife, Margaret, d. June 23, 1667. He m. his second wife, Elizabeth Webb, Aug. 19, 1667, and mentions her in his Will, together with his children, Thomas, Mary, John, Ephraim, and Elizabeth, the last two of whom were under 21 years of age. This testator is stated in the Probate Records to have d. May 25, 1674. His eldest son, Thomas, b. April 1, 1653; m. March 22, 1676, Mary Weeks; is called "Col." d. April 28, 1694, a. 42.

His widow m. a Gage. His son Thomas removed to Bradford; was there.
FAMILY OF THOMAS GREEN.

1699. Ephraim Green, son of the aforesaid testator, d. Nov. 28, 1694, probably unmarried. Of John Green, b. Jan. 26, 1658-9, brother of Ephraim, we have no further account.

FIRST GENERATION.

1. THOMAS GREEN[E]* was born in England, probably abt. 1606. There are reasons for supposing that he came from Leicestershire, but no proof of the fact. The time of his arrival in this country is also uncertain. The first record in which his name appears, so as to identify him, is 1633, when his youngest daughter, Dorcas, was born. Yet he doubtless came many years before, probably 1635 or 1636. We are inclined to the opinion that he lived in Ipswich till 1649 or 1650, and then removed to Malden. He certainly lived in Malden as early as Oct. 28, 1651, when his wife Elizabeth, and also bearing the same name, signed a petition to the General Court.

He had a farm of 63 acres in the north part of Malden, in that part which is now the town of Melrose. A part of his farm remains to this day in the possession of his descendants. See pp. 44, 58.

He was selectman of Malden in 1655, and was several times on the grand jury of the County of Middlesex. As there were two other Thomas Greens in the town, he is known on the records as Thomas Green, senior; his son being junior, and the other Thomas left without any suffix.

He m. 1. Elizabeth, who was doubtless the mother of all his children, and who d. Aug. 22, 1658. 2. Frances Cook, Sept. 5, 1659. She was then the widow of Richard Cook, who d. October 14, 1658; and had previously been the widow of Isaac Wheeler. She was b. in 1608, and had children by both her former husbands.

He d. Dec. 19, 1667. His Will, dated Nov. 12, 1667; proved Jan. 15, 1667-8; recorded Midd. Prob., 5: 297, mentions no wife, but makes bequests to his "eldest son" Thomas, sons John, William, Henry, Samuel, and daughters Elizabeth, Mary, Hannah, Martha, and Dorcas. Sons William and Henry were appointed executors. John Waite, John Lynde, witnesses. Inventory, Jan. 10, 1667-8; amount, £285. 18. 2.

The children of Thomas Green were:

2. Elizabeth,* prob. b. in England abt. 1628, one of the signers of the petition to Gen. Court in 1651. Nothing further is known of her.
3. Thomas,* prob. b. in England abt. 1630; m. Rebecca Hills abt. 1653.†
4. John,* b. (prob. in Eng.) 1632; m. Sarah Wheeler, Dec. 18, 1650.‡
5. Mary,* prob. b. in Eng. abt. 1633; m. before 1656, Capt. John Waite, a prominent citizen; selected man 1658, 1678, 1679 and four following years; representative 1655-1664.
6. † William,* b. —, 1635; m. 1. Elizabeth Wheeler. 2. Isabel (Farmer) Blood.
7. † Henry,* b. —, 1638; m. Esther Hase, Jan. 11, 1671-2.
8. † Samuel,* b. March, 1645; m. 1. Mary Cook, 1666. 2. Susanna ——.
9. Hannah,* b. about 1647; m. Joseph Richardson, of Woburn, Nov. 5, 1666. She d. May 20, 1721. For her posterity, see "Vinton Memorial."
10. Martha,* b. about 1650.
11. Dorcas,* b. in Malden, May 1, 1658; m. Jan. 11, 1671-2, James Barrett,* of Malden, b. April 6, 1644. She d. 1682. James d. 1684. Their children, intermarrying with the Sargents, &c., have numerous descendants.

Some of the above were doubtless born in England; how many is unknown.

In many, perhaps most of the earliest records, the name was spelled with the final "e." But the great majority of the descendants of Thomas Green* have not used the final vowel; which will therefore be omitted, except in recording the families descended from Ebenezer Greens of Belchertown, and one or two others, by whom it was assumed about 1625, in the belief that it conformed to ancient orthography.

† This petition was signed by 25 females of Malden, praying the General Court to excuse some errors and failings of Rev. Marmaduke Matthews, first minister of Malden, who had fallen under the censure of that honorable body. Three Elisabeth Greens were among the signers; the third being wife of James Green.* See Introductory paragraphs, page 7. [Bi-Centennial Book of Malden, p. 140.]
SECOND GENERATION.

THOMAS GREEN,⁵ son of the preceding; prob. b. in Eng. about 1630; m. about 1653, REBECCA HILLS,⁶ dau. of JOSEPH HILLS,⁷ then of Malden, afterwards of Newbury, by his first wife, Rose Dunster, sister of President Dunster.

He resided in Malden, was a farmer, and was admitted freeman May 31, 1670. He d. Feb. 12, 1671–2, having made his will on the day of his death; which will, proved April 2, 1672, and recorded Midd. Prob. 4: 116, gives to wife Rebecca the third part of his estate; the remainder to be equally divided among his children Rebecca, Hannah, Thomas, and Samuel, who were then all under age. Wife Rebecca, Exrs. His brother John Green and brother Wayte, overseers. Inventory, £164. 10; dated March 8, 1671–2.

His widow, Rebecca, d. June 6, 1674.

The children of Thomas and Rebecca (Hills) Green, were—

12. Rebecca,⁸ b. 1654; m. 1674, Thomas Newell of Lynn. He was appointed administrator, "in behalf of his wife and the other children," of the estate of the widow Rebecca Green, his wife's mother, March 4, 1674–5. Joseph Hills of Newbury, conveyed, Nov. 9, 1674, to the aforesaid Thomas Newell and Rebecca his wife, two parcels of land, containing ten acres, and "sometimes in the occupation of Thomas Green;" in consideration of payments to be made to Hannah (sister of the grantee's wife) and to Samuel (her brother) when they should become of age. Furthermore, Samuel Green, last mentioned, was to be "brought up" by the said Newell. In this deed, Joseph Hills calls himself "father of Rebecca, the wife of Thomas Green, late of Malden." [Midd. Deeds, 8: 449–46.] The same land was conveyed, April 24, 1690, by the said Thomas Newell "of Malden," to the said Samuel Green. [Midd. Deeds, 12: 449.]

Mrs. Rebecca Newell d. May 25, 1726, æt. 73. [Gravestone in Malden.]

13. Thomas,⁹ b. Feb. 1655–6; d. April 15, 1674. As he is mentioned in his father's will, but not in the settlement of his father's estate, 1675, nor in the will of his grandfather, Joseph Hills, 1687, while Rebecca, Hannah, and Samuel are mentioned, he must have died before those latter transactions.

15. Hannah,⁹ b. Feb. 24, 1659–60; m. Aug. 26, 1677, JOHN VINTON¹⁰ of Malden, afterwards of Woburn. The ancestor of a very numerous posteriority, viz., of nearly all registered in the VINTON MEMORIAL. She is mentioned in the will of Joseph Hills, 1687, as his grand dau. Hannah Vinton.

Daughter, JOHN GREEN,¹¹ son of Thomas Green,¹² b. (prob. in England) 1652; m. in Malden, Dec. 18, 1660, SARAH WHEELER, b. June, 1643, dau. of Isaac Wheeler, whose wife Frances afterwards m. Richard Cook, and after that m. John Green's father, Thomas Green, sen.

He was a respectable and influential citizen of Malden; freeman, Oct. 24, 1668; captain of a military company, and for many years deacon of the church. He was selectman nineteen years between 1679 and 1701, and represented the town in the General Court 1692–3–4–6.

He d. Oct. 16, 1707, æ. 75. [Gravestone.] This proves that he was b. in 1629. His will is dated the previous day, Oct. 15, 1707; proved Nov. 10, 1707; recorded Midd. Prob. 11: 177. After making bequests to wife Sarah, dau. Sarah Sprague, and gr. dau. Mehitable Sprague, (then under 18) he gives the rest of his estate to his son John, who is made executor.

* Rebecca Hills signed, 1653, the petition referred to on page 295, note. Her first child was b. 1554. She must have been married in the interval.
His widow, Sarah, d. Dec. 1, 1717, a. 74 y. 6 mo. [Gravestone.] Whence it appears that she was b. May or June 1643. Their children were—

17. Sarah, b. Sept. 1662; d. young.
18. Mary, b. Dec. 1668; prob. d. young; not mentioned in father’s Will.
19. John, b. April 1670; d. young.
20. *John, b. March 21, 1673-4; m. his cousin Mary Green. [39.]

6.

Capt. WILLIAM GREEN, 3 third son of Thomas Green, sen., b. in 1635, as appears from his age at several times when he gave testimony, and from his age as marked on his gravestone. He m. 1, ELIZABETH WHEELER, dau. of Isaac Wheeler, and sister of his brother John’s wife. 2 They were m. by Capt. Marshall, Sept. 13, 1659, according to Midd. Records; but March 13, 1659-60, according to Malden Records; both being copies of a perished original.

After the death of Elizabeth, he m. 2, Feb. 6, 1684-5, ISABEL BLOOD, b. 1662, widow of James Blood of Concord, and formerly widow of David Wyman, 2 of Woburn, to whom she was m. April 27, 1675, and by whom she had two children, David, 2 and Isabel, 3 the last being b. July 5, 1677. Her maiden name was Isabel Farmer, from Ansley in England. She survived her third husband, Capt. Green, more than thirty years, dying March 3, 1736-7, a. 85.

He was made freeman Oct. 24, 1666; was a farmer; member of the church in Malden; captain of a military company; selectman 1678, 1688, 1703. He owned one half of the farm in Malden, which had been owned by his father Thomas Green, and sold it to his brother Samuel, Oct. 1670; the other half being owned by his brother Henry. [Midd. Deeds, 4: 50.] His brother John owned land on the north of it.

He d. Dec. 30, 1705, a. 70. [Gravestone.] His Will, dated Dec. 14, 1705; proved Jan. 21, 1705-6; recorded Midd. Prob., 11: 84; leaves his personal property in part to wife Isabel, grandsons William Green, Benjamin Green, Nathaniel Green, all three under 21 years of age; and dau. Sarah Webb; the real estate and part of the personal being left to sons Isaac and John Green, who are made joint executors.

The children of William and Elizabeth Green, were—

22. William, b. 1661; m. about 1682, Elizabeth Hills.
23. *Isaac, b. ______; m. Sarah ______.
24. John, b. Oct. 1667; seems to have d. young.
25. *Elizabeth, b. Nov. 1669; prob. d. early; not mentioned in father’s Will.
26. Sarah, b. May 1, 1671; m. _______ Webb.
27. *John, b. about 1672; m. 1699, Isabel Wyman.

7.

Lieut. HENRY GREEN, 8 fourth son of Thomas Green, sen., b. 1638, probably in this country. His age is deduced from his gravestone, and from his testimony in court.

He m. Jan. 11, 1671-2, ESTHER HARSE, b. 1649 or 1650, a name not known at present, unless it be changed to Hussey or Hersay.

He resided in Malden, where he was selectman thirteen years between 1682 and 1714; representative 1689, 1694, 1703, 1704. He has a numerous posterity. He d. Sept. 19, 1717, “a. 78 years and 6 mos.” [Gravestone.]

His Will is dated Jan. 23, 1704-5; proved Sept. 23, 1717; recorded Midd. Prob., 14: 559. He leaves property to wife Esther; to son Henry, who has land of the testator in possession in Charlestown; to son Joseph, son Daniel (gives him land in Charlestown [prob. what is now Stoneham] and elsewhere); son Jacob, (who has the homestead); dau. Esther Flagg, and two other daws.

* Richard Cook left property by Will, Sept. 22, 1638, to Elizabeth and Sarah Wheeler, his wife’s daughters by her first husband, Isaac Wheeler; these must be the same.
SECOND GENERATION.

Dorcas and Lydia. His four sons, Henry, Joseph, Daniel and Jacob, are exec., notwithstanding that Jacob is under age. Witnesses, William Green [6], Jonathan Green [49], Samuel Sprague.

His widow Esther survived him thirty years. The latter part of her life was spent in Stoneham, probably with her son Daniel. She d. there, Feb. 26, 1747-8, a. 98. [Gravestone.] Her Will, dated May 22, 1740; proved July 12, 1748; recorded Midd. Prob., 25 : 344; gives wearing apparel to her three dau., Esther Flagg, Dorcas Wiley, and Lydia Lynde; divides her estate to son Henry Green and his children; dau. Esther Flagg and her children; son Joseph Green's children; son Daniel Green and his children; dau. Dorcas Fligh [Wiley] and her children; dau. Lydia Lynde and her children; and son Jacob Green's children. Also mentions four grand dau., Dorothy Brown, Catharine Haskell [Haskell], Jemima Biggs [Bixby], and Miriam Green. Son Daniel Green, and son-in-law Thomas Lynde, execs. Witnesses, John Green, Jonas Green, John Clark.

The children of Henry and Esther Green were—

28. *Henry, b. Jan. 24, 1672-3; m. Hannah Flagg of Woburn, Jan. 9, 1695-6.†
30. *Joseph, b. Oct. 1678; m. Hannah Green, dau. of John, son of James.†
32. Dorcas, b. about 1683; m. — Wiley.
33. Lydia, b. Aug. 11, 1685; m. Thomas Lynde, son of Capt. John Lynde, son of Deacon Thomas Lynde, b. in Eng. about 1614; d. Oct. 15, 1693; who was son of Des. THOMAS LYNDE, b. in Eng. Jan. 1583-4; freeman 1638; d. at Charlestown, his residence, Dec. 29, 1671, a. 77. Mrs. Lydia Lynde d. Oct. 19, 1755. Thomas and Lydia had Thomas, b. 1711; Jonas, b. 1714; Jacob, b. 1716; Lydia, b. 1723. — 34. *Jacob, b. May 6, 1689; m. July 8, 1713, Dorothy Lynde, dau. of Capt. John.†

8. SAMUEL GREEN, youngest son of Thomas Green, b. March, 1645. The date of his birth is inferred from his age as marked on his gravestone. He m. 1, 1666, MARY COOK, dau. of Richard Cook, second husband of Frances, whose third husband was Thomas Green, sen., father of our Samuel. She d. Nov. 24, 1715. 2, SUSANNA ——, who survived him. He has a numerous posterity.

He resided in Malden; and appears as "Samuel Green, sen.," on the records, to distinguish him from three other Samuel Greens, then in Malden, viz.: his son Samuel, his nephew, Samuel [16], and his son-in-law, Samuel, son of John, son of James, of another family. In Oct. 1670, he purchased of his brother William, one half of his father's farm, and from that time occupied "the old mansion house." Bought the other half of his brother Henry, June 13, 1684. [Midd. Deeds, 4: 50, and 9: 141.]

He d. Oct. 31, 1724, a. 79 years, 7 months. [Gravestone.] His Will is dated Jan. 3, 1722-3; proved Nov. 13, 1724; recorded Midd. Prob., 17: 168. He mentions wife Susanna; gives to his six sons, Samuel, Thomas, William, Jonathan, David, and Isaac, after paying some small legacies, all his estate, real and personal, in equal proportions. His three dau., Mary, Martha, Elizabeth, having "had their proportions already," are each to receive only five shillings. The six sons are appointed execs. Witnesses, John Green, Jacob Green, John Green, jr.

By an instrument dated April 11, 1716, "John Green and Mary Green his wife, Samuel Green and Martha Green his wife, David Gould and Elizabeth Gould his wife, all sons-in-law and daughters of Samuel Green, sen., relinquish to their brothers Samuel, Thomas, William, Jonathan, David and Isaac Green, all sons of Samuel Green, sen.," &c.

The children of Samuel and Mary Green were—

37. John,\textsuperscript{3} b. April 1, 1672; prob. d. early; not mentioned in father's Will or elsewhere after date of birth.

38. †William,\textsuperscript{3} b. Aug. 1674; m. May 29, 1707, Elizabeth Farmer.

39. Mary,\textsuperscript{3} b. about 1677; m. her cousin John Green.\textsuperscript{3} [283]

40. †Jonathan,\textsuperscript{3} b. Feb. 7, 1679-80; m. Lydia Bucknam, Nov. 15, 1715.

41. †Martha,\textsuperscript{3} b. —, 1692; m. Samuel Green,\textsuperscript{3} of another family. See above.

42. †David,\textsuperscript{3} b. —, 1685; m. Martha Pratt, Dec. 10, 1713.

43. Elizabeth,\textsuperscript{3} b. Nov. 16, 1687; m. David Gould, about 1715. They resided in Stoneham; were there at and before the incorporation of the town, 1726. She d. April 18, 1753, a. 64. [Gravestone.] Mr. Gould d. April 3, 1760, a. 69. [Ibid.] Their son Jacob, b. 1726, was father of Jacob Gould, b. March 30, 1784, murdered for money, by persons unknown, in his own house, at Stoneham, Nov. 26, 1819, a. 86.

44. †Isaac,\textsuperscript{3} b. May 29, 1690; m. Mary Pratt, May 2, 1717.

THIRD GENERATION.

Capt. SAMUEL GREEN,\textsuperscript{3} (Thomas,\textsuperscript{2} Thomas,\textsuperscript{1})\textsuperscript{3} b. son of Thomas\textsuperscript{2} and Rebecca (Hills) Green of Malden; b. Oct. 5, 1670; m. ELIZABETH Upham, supposed to be a daughter of Des. Phineas Upham,\textsuperscript{2} (b. 1658; d. 1720, a. 62), eldest son of Lieut. Phineas Upham,\textsuperscript{2} who was severely wounded in the storming of the Narragansett fort, Dec. 39, 1675; of which wound he d. Oct. following. The last was son of Des. JOHN Upham,\textsuperscript{2} b. in Eng. 1697; came to Weymouth about 1635; removed to Malden a few years afterwards; selectman of Malden 1651, and subsequently; d. Feb. 25, 1681, a. 64.

He is mentioned in the Will (dated Sept. 14, 1687: Suff. Prob., 10: 241,) of his grandfather Joseph Hills of Newbury, (formerly of Malden,) together with his sister Hannah Vinton. That he married Elizabeth Upham is certain from an original deed to him from Joseph Lynde of Malden, dated Jan. 14, 1701-2, now in the possession of his descendant, William N. Green of Worcester, which thus distinguishes him from other Samuel Greens, "that Samuel Green which married Elizabeth Upham."

He resided in Malden till about 1717, when he removed with his family to Leicester, of which town he was one of the original founders. That township was granted by the General Court, Feb. 10, 1713-14, and Capt. Green was one of the committee (with Col. William Dudley of Roxbury and others) appointed by the proprietors to settle it. He owned three lots of forty acres each, and two of thirty acres each, in said town. [Midd. Deeds, 29: 229.] He was a very influential man in all the affairs of the new settlement. That part of the town, occupied by him and his relatives, who soon afterwards moved from Malden, is now called Greenville, in honor of him. It is a village in the south part of Leicester, about a mile north of South Leicester R. R. Depot.

He d. Jan. 2, 1735-6. His Will, dated Malden, April 18, 1717,—just before removing to Leicester; proved Feb. 5, 1735-6; recorded Worc. Prob., mentions wife Elizabeth, son Thomas, (who has the real estate, except that one-half of the real and personal is for his mother's use during her life,) and six duns, as below.

Mrs. Elizabeth Green d. in Leicester, probably in 1761. Children—

45. Elizabeth,\textsuperscript{3} b. April 4, 1693; m. Thomas Richardson in Malden.

46. Rebecca,\textsuperscript{3} b. April 4, 1695; m. Samuel Baldwin.

47. Ruth,\textsuperscript{3} b. ——; m. Joshua Nichols.

48. †Thomas,\textsuperscript{3} b. ——, 1699; m. Martha Lynde, in Malden, Jan. 13, 1725-6.

\footnote{A formula similar to this will be hereafter used in this sketch, to indicate the pedigree of the individual after whose name it occurs. In the present instance, it reminds the reader that Capt. Samuel Green was a son of Thomas,\textsuperscript{2} who was son of Thomas,\textsuperscript{1} the original emigrant.}
THIRD GENERATION.

49. Lydia,1 b. —— ; m. 1. her cousin, Abiather Vinton, in Malden, April 30, 1729. They lived in Braintree a year or two after marriage; soon after settled in Leicester, where Abiather Vinton died in 1749. His widow, Lydia, m. 2, Jan. 15, 1746, Sam'l Stower of Leicester, a native of Malden. Abiather and Lydia Vinton were gr. grandparents of Hon. Samuel Finley Vinton, b. in South Hadley, Sept. 28, 1792; graduated Wms. Coll. 1814; many years an eminent lawyer in Gallipolis, Ohio; 22 years member of Congress from that State. See a full genealogy of Lydia Vinton's descendants in the VINTON MEMORIAL.

51. Abigail,3 b. —— ; m. Henry King.

The Malden Records make Nov. 45, 46, to be twins; b. April 4, 1695, which was probably the fact. The County Records at E. Cambridge give them as above.

JOHN GREEN,5 (John,6 Thomas,7) only surviving son of Dea. John and Sarah (Wheeler) Green; b. in Malden, March 21, 1673-4; m. (it is believed) his cousin, MARY GREEN,8 [39] dau. of Samuel.2 They were m. by Rev. Mr. Wiggesworth. Feb. 23, 1697-8.6

He resided in Malden, of which town he was selectman, 1722, 1723.

He d. intestate, Nov. 28, 1747, a. 74. [Gravestone.] His son John was appointed adjt., April 11, 1748. Inventory, May 9, 1748; amount, £2570, old tenor; a currency now depreciated to one-sixth its par value. [Midd. Prob., 25: 194.] His children were—

54. Jacob,9 b. Oct. 20, 1700; m. ———; d. before 1749.
55. Mary,9 b. June 9, 1703; m. ——— Sweetser.
57. Elizabeth,4 b. Dec. 22, 1709; d. May 9, 1738.

WILLIAM GREEN,9 (William,8 Thomas,7) eldest son of Capt. William9 and Elizabeth (Wheeler) Green, was b. in Malden, 1661. This we learn from his deposition, Feb. 15, 1685-6, where he affirms himself to be "aged about 24 years." He m. about 1682, ELIZABETH HILLS,10 b. 1661, dau. of Joseph Hills,11 jun., and gr. dau. of JOSEPH HILLS,12 sen., who d. at Newbury, Feb. 9, 1687-8, a. 26. This is ascertained from a deed, given Nov. 12, 1685, by Joseph Hills, to his gr. dau. Elizabeth Green, wife of William Green, jr., of Malden, and dau. of the grantor's son Joseph Hills, of a parcel of land in Malden.

He lived in Malden; and d. March 21, 1700-1. [Midd. Prob. Records.] There is a tradition in the family that he was killed at Dunstable, [now Nashua] by the Indians. This is not improbable; but no record has been found to confirm it.

His widow Elizabeth m. Aug. 25, 1691, Capt. John Lynde,8 son of Thomas Lynde.2 See [33.] This marriage is proved not only by the record of it in Malden, but by the Midd. Prob. Records.† By Elizabeth, his second wife,
23. ISAAC GREEN, (William, Thomas,) brother of the preceding, born in Malden about 1663; m. SARAH ———. (a)

He resided in Malden certainly till 1708. We have found no record of any public office borne by him, and no record of his death; nor has any record touched him met our eye later than Nov. 23, 1708, when he and his brother John, as executors of their father’s Will, gave to their nephew Benjamin Green,* [99] who had just come of age, a deed of 5 acres and 100 poles of land, on account of a legacy granted him by his (Benjamin’s) grandfather, Capt. William Green. [Midd. Deeds, 16: 395.] His children, as recorded, were—

61. Isaac,* b. in Malden, Dec. 27, 1694. (->)
62. William,* b. in Malden, Nov. 20, 1696. (->)

27. JOHN GREEN, (William, Thomas,) brother of the preceding, b. 1672, as we infer from his gravestone; m. 1699, ISABEL WYMAN, b. July 5, 1677, dau. of his father’s second wife Isabel, by her first husband David Wyman of Woburn, who d. of smallpox 1675. David was b. in Woburn, April 7, 1654, son of Lieut. JOHN WYMAN,* one of the original settlers of Woburn in 1632."

The husband of Isabel Wyman lived in the extreme east part of Stoneham, on the country road from Stoneham to Lynn, and near the intersection of the road leading from Malden to Reading, a little west of the last-named road. The locality is now included in the present town of Melrose; and is about a quarter of a mile east of the Stoneham R. R. Depot. We are thus particular, because from the Will of John Green, it appears that the farm once belonged to his grandfather. He was selectman of Stoneham 1735, and was a member of the church in that town. He d. Aug. 29, 1736, a. 64. [Gravestone in Malden.] In his Will, dated June 24, 1736; proved Oct. 11, 1736; Middle Prob., 20: 803; he calls himself "of Stoneham," mentions wife Isabel, son John, who has "my dwelling-house and barn, and the land adjoining, that lyeth on the west side of the country road that leadeth from Malden to Reading, that was my grandfather’s; besides several other lots. Son Josiah has "all my land on the east side of the country road," aforesaid; and other lots. Gives his dau., Isabel Green, £250; the currency being then depreciated to one-fourth of its original value. Sons John and Josiah, executors.

Isaac Green certain parcels of land, once belonging to his mother, Elizabeth Green, last the wife of John Lynde, deceased, intestate, and calls Mehitable Lynde his (William’s) sister. Another bond calls James Lynde his sister; and still another calls Dorothy Lynde his sister.

These quotations are made to substantiate the text, and to invalidate an unfounded tradition that Elizabeth (Hills) Green, widow of William Green,* in the text, after his death m. Capt. Samuel Green* [15] of Leicester.

*See note *, on p. 15.
The children of John and Isabel Green were—

63. (John,4 b. March 22, 1699-1700; m. 1, Sarah —_______ 2, Jerusha Norwood.
64. David,4 b. April 9, 1702; d. Oct. 9, 1732, a. 30.
65. Israel,4 b. Jan. 8, 1704-5; m. May 2, 1738, Capt. Peter Hay of Stoneham.
   She d. March 15, 1786, a. 80. [Gravestone.]

The last birth is derived from Jacob Green's [34] "Writing Book." the proceeding from Malden Records.

28.

HENRY GREEN,2 (Henry,2 Thomas,1) eldest son of Henry2 and Esther (Husse) Green, b. in Malden, Jan. 24, 1672-3; m. Jan. 9, 1685-6, Hannah Flagg, b. March 13, 1675, dau. of Gershom and Hannah (Leffingwell) Flagg of Woburn. (✓)

He resided in that part of Charlestown which in 1725 was incorporated as Stoneham. Jan. 30, 1718-9, for £260 "of possible money," he sold to his brother Daniel Green of Malden, 64 acres land in Charlestown, "with the houseings and buildings," etc., also 9 acres woodland in Charlestown; also 114 acres upland and meadow in Malden, and 6 acres salt marsh in Charlestown. [Midd. Deeds, 20: 371.] Soon after, he seems to have removed thence to Connecticut. Rev. Jacob Green, [29] in 1746, on a tour from Hanover, N. J., to New England, visited Henry Green in Killingly, who was doubtless his cousin, below. [69.] Our Henry is mentioned in his mother's Will, May, 1740, as then living. He probably d. not long after.

Children of Henry and Hannah Green, b. in Charlestown, [the part now Stoneham]—

69. Henry,4 twins, b. Sept. 24, 1696. [✓]
70. Ebenezer,4 b. May 6, 1698.
71. Hannah,4 b. March 8, 1699-1700.
72. Seth,4 b. March 8, 1699-1700.
73. Eleazer,4 b. March 18, 1701-2.
74. Nathanael,4 b. March 1, 1702-3.
75. Timothy,4 b. May 7, 1706.
76. Esther,4 b. May 17, 1706.
77. Ephraim,4 b. Sept. 10, 1710.
78. Amos,4 b. Dec. 30, 1712.

30.

Dea. JOSEPH GREEN,2 (Henry,2 Thomas,1) brother of the preceding, b. in Malden, Oct. 1678, as we infer from his gravestone; m. 1700, HANNAH GREEN, dau. of "John Green of the Hill," who was son of JAMES GREEN1 of Malden.

He was deacon of the church in Malden, and selectman six years between 1722 and 1731. He d. Nov. 28, 1732, a. 54 y. 1 mo. [Gravestone, also Rec.] His Will is dated Nov. 4, 1732; proved Dec. 25, 1732; recorded Midd. Prob., 19: 436. In it he mentions wife Hannah: "My five sons, Joseph, Josiah, Stephen, Jabez, Daniel," of whom the last two were under age; also, dau. Joanna Dexter, and Tabitha Green. The "eldest son Joseph to have £50 more than either of the other sons." Witnesses, Jonathan Green, [40] Daniel Green, [31] David Green, [42]

His widow Hannah survived him nearly 33 years, and d. Aug. 25, 1765, a.

* For James Green, see introduction to this sketch. His son, "John Green of the Hill," so called on the records to distinguish him from other John Greens in Malden, was b. about 1650, and d. 1709, leaving property by Will (dated Oct. 13, 1708; proved April 11, 1709) to only son Samuel, and dau. Mary Sergeant, Elizabeth Sprague, and Hannah Green (above). Midd. Prob. 11: 391. His widow Mary d. Feb. 13, 1721-2 (Jacob Green's "Writing Book").
FAMILY OF THOMAS GREEN.

Children of Dea. Joseph and Hannah Green, b. in Malden--

80. Joseph, b. Oct. 25, 1701; m. Ruth, ______.
85. Tabitha, b. March 26, 1714. Never married. She lived with her brother Josiah in Stoneham, till his death, April 9, 1774; after that with his son Josiah, till her death in the winter of 1797-8. Her inventory is dated March 7, 1798; amount $132.40. Josiah Green charges for boarding her 211/2 years, at $16.66.7 per year. [Midd. Prob. 84: 202, 425.]
86. Jabez, b. Sept. 8, 1718; m. Mary, ______.

31.

Dea. DANIEL GREEN, (Henry, Thomas,) brother of the preceding, b. in Malden, 1681, as we learn from his gravestone; m. in Reading by Justice Brown, Dec. 29, 1708, to MARY BUCKNAM of Malden. He lived in Malden till about 1719, and his children's births till that time are recorded in that town. January 30, 1718-19, he bought the farm of his eldest brother Henry, in Stoneham, and went to reside upon it. He was in Stoneham at the incorporation of that town in 1725, and was an active and influential citizen; a man of probity and worth. He was often chosen to town offices and on important committees; selectman 1732-3, 1728, 1730, 1731, 1733, 1734, 1735, 1740, 1749. The church in Stoneham was gathered July 2, 1729, and the members chose as their deacons, Daniel Green and Daniel Gould, Nov. 27, 1730. Daniel Green and Samuel Sprague occupied the office of ruling elder in the same church, March 9, 1746-7; to which office they were solemnly ordained, Nov. 29, 1747, by Rev. John White of Cape Anne, [Gloucester] with the assistance of the ruling elders of that church. From this time till his death, the subject of this paragraph was known on the records and among his fellow citizens as "Elder Daniel Green," and so he is designated on his gravestone.

The children of Daniel and Mary Green were--

88. Esther, b. ______, 1709; m. David Gould, jr. of Stoneham, Feb. 11, 1740-1, who was b. Nov. 2, 1715. She d. Feb. 1801, a. 92 [1].

90. Judith, b. Sept. 23, 1715; m. John Sprague of Malden. They had a son Daniel.
THIRD GENERATION.

91. Sarah, b. Sept. 6, 1717; m. Abiel Brown of Stoneham, March 25, 1736. She d. a widow, May 6, 1769, a. 51. [Gravestone.]

94. Eunice, b. ———; m. John Menzies of Boston, shipwright, Jan. 4, 1744-5.

34. JACOB GREEN, 3 (Henry 2, Thomas 1) brother of the preceding, b. in Malden, May 10, 1699; m. July 8, 1713, DOROTHY LYnde, 4 b. Dec. 20, 1692, d. of Capt. John Lynde, 2 of Malden, by his second wife Elizabeth (Hills) Green, widow of William Green. 3 See p. 14, at top.

He lived in Malden, and seems to have been of a sedate, contemplative turn of mind. He had a fondness for preserving a record of passing events; would that such a practice had been more common in this and other families! His book of memorabilia, called by himself "Jacob Green, his Writing Book," is still preserved. It is a small leather-bound volume, 3½ by 6 inches, containing about 140 pages. It is mostly in the hand-writing of Jacob 4 but partly in that of his son, Rev. Jacob. 4 The compiler of these sketches has derived much aid from these memoranda, a copy of which was kindly furnished by Ashbel Green, Esq., of New York city, one of the many descendants of this branch. In this volume are found records of the town meetings, of births, marriages, and deaths, of admissions to the church, etc., all of which have been found to have a remarkable correspondence with official records, so far as any verification has been attempted.

The children of Jacob and Dorothy Green, b. in Malden, were—

95. Dorothy, 4 b. May 24, 1714; m. 1, Ephraim Brown of Stoneham, May 18, 1736. 2, John Sprague, April 12, 1755, perhaps a native of Stoneham, or Malden. Mr. and Mrs. Sprague lived in Killingly, Ct.

96. Catharine, 4 b. June 19, 1716; m. ——— Haskell. They resided in Killingly, Ct., where they were visited by Rev. Jacob Green 4 in April, 1746.

97. Jemima, 4 b. April 34, 1718; m. ——— Bixby; sometimes called Bitha on the records. They resided in Thompson, Ct., and were there visited by Rev. Jacob Green, 4 in April, 1746.

98. Miriam, 4 b. March 7, 1720; m. ——— Richardson, between 1740 and 1746. At the last date they resided in Dudley, and were there visited by her brother Jacob.

99. *Jacob, 4 b. Jan. 22, 1721-2; m. 1, Anna Strong. 2, Elizabeth Pierson.

FAMILY OF THOMAS GREEN.

Wilson, Samuel Wilson, Joseph Wilson, and gr. dau. Susanna Wilson. To these grandchildren he gives 26. 6d. apiece to his gr. dau. Phebe Pratt he gives 3s. Witnesses, John Green, [65] Jonas Green, [66] Jonathan Green, [117]. The testator was very old, and probably poor, or we may charitably suppose his legacies would have been more ample.

So far as we can gather, his children were—

102. Mary, b. ——; m. Dec. 31, 1719, John Wilson. [Jacob Green’s “Writing Book.”]
103. [Samuel,] b. ——; m. Lois Sprague of Chelsea. [Book.]
104. Lydia, b. June 26, 1708; m. (Nathaniel?) Howard. ( — )

We suppose that to this family is to be added—

106. Sarah, b. ——; m. Jacob Wilson, Dec. 15, 1750. [Jacob Green’s “Writing Book.”] Jacob and John Wilson were brothers, sons of Jacob and Susannah of Malden.

He resided in Malden; was a yeoman, and possessed a fair estate.

He d. intestate, Aug. 24, 1725. Inventory taken, Sept. 28, 1725; appraisers, John Green, Daniel Green, [cousins of the deceased.] His dwelling-house, barn, cider-mill, and 106 acres of land, were appraised at £734. 17. 6. equivalent at that time to 960 Spanish dollars; an estate corresponding, for practical purposes, to an estate worth 5000 dollars at the present time. His widow Hannah was appointed administratrix, Dec. 6, 1725. His real estate was divided and settled Feb. 20, 1727-8. The widow Hannah had one-third part. The remainder was divided between the eldest son Thomas, his brothers Joshua and Jonathan, and sister Hannah, wife of Ebenezer Parker. [Midd. Prob., 17: 368, also 18: 66, 68.]

In the interval between the last date and April 21, 1729, (the date of her mother’s Will,) the widow Hannah m. John Pool of Reading. They were both living in 1753, at the date of her son Thomas’ Will; but Mr. Pool seems to have died about June, 1753, and as his wife is not mentioned in his Will, [proved July 3, 1738, Midd. Prob., 28: 53], she probably d. earlier.

The children of Thomas and Hannah (Vinton) Green were—

107. Hannah, b. March 6, 1698-9; m. Ebenezer Parker, probably of Reading. 108. [Thomas,] b. Dec. 9, 1702; m. Mary Green, dau. of Daniel, [99.]
110. Jonathan, b. April 2, 1714. ( — )

They resided in Malden till about 1720; then moved to Reading, where they both died. He d. May 19, 1761. No settlement has been found of his estate. ( — )

His children, b. in Malden were—

112. Eunice, b. June 28, 1709.
114. +William, b. May 17, 1715; m. Susanna Gould of Stoneham.
115. Nathan, b. Nov. 6, 1719. ( — )
JOSEPH GREEN, brother of the preceding, b. in Malden, Feb. 2, 1679-80; m. Nov. 15, 1715, LYDIA BUCKNAM, b. March 24, 1685, dau. of Josiah and Judith Bucknham of Malden.

They removed from Malden to Stoneham a few years before the incorporation of the latter town in 1725. He was an influential and useful citizen. On the town records of Stoneham his name occurs very often as moderator of town meetings, as a member of important committees, and as invested with town offices. He was selectman fourteen years, from 1728 to 1744, and evidently enjoyed in a high degree the confidence of his fellow citizens. He d. July 21, 1744, "a. 64 years, 5 months, and 19 days." [Gravestone.]

His Will, dated March 30, 1735; proved Aug. 15, 1744; recorded Midd. Prob., 21:329, makes provision for wife Lydia, but leaves the whole estate to son Jonathan, whom he makes executor; except that to the four daus., Lydia, Abigail, Rachel and Phebe, he gives £300 each in "bills of credit," or current money; which at the date of the Will were depreciated to less than one-fourth of their original value, and at the time of his death, to about one-sixth. Daniel Green, [31] David Green, [42] Isaac Green, [44] overseers of the Will. Rev. James Osgood, William Green, [38] Josiah Green, [82] witnesses.

His widow Lydia d. Aug. 28, 1775, "a. 80 years and 5 months." [Gravestone. Their children were—

117. Jonathan, b. Nov. 23, 1719; m. 1, Sarah Gould, 1745. 2, Rebecca Green, 118. An infant, b. ——; d. April 5, 1722. [Jacob Green’s "Writing Book."

The foregoing were b. in Malden; the following in Stoneham—

119. Lydia, b. March 26, 1723; m. Jacob Nichols of Reading, Mar. 21, 1742-3.
120. Abigail, b. April 5, 1725; m. Anthony Hadley of Stoneham, Nov. 15, 1744.

They were both living in 1775, when they gave receipt for a legacy. [Midd., Prob. 63:396.

MARTHA GREEN, sister of the preceding, b. in Malden, 1683 (as we infer from gravestone); m. SAMUEL GREEN, b. 1679, only son of "John Green of the Hill," as he is styled in the records, who was son of JAMES GREEN. [See introduction to this sketch.

He resided in Malden, of which town he was representative in 1742, and selectman 1743. In 1722, he purchased a dwelling-house and five acres of land from Rev. David Parsons, who had recently removed from Malden to Leicester. He d. Feb. 21, 1761, a. 82. In his Will, dated Jan. 30, 1752; proved March 23, 1761; recorded Midd. Prob., 23:255; he calls himself "gentleman of Malden;" leaves estate to sons James, John, Timothy, dau. Mary Decnwy [Dana], son Ezra, who is appointed executor, and gr. dau. Martha Robbins and Elizabeth Baldwin. His wife Martha d. May 20, 1754, a. 72.

Their children were—

123. James, b. Nov. 22, 1709; selectman of Malden, 1751; m. 1, Rhumah, dau. of Dea. Joseph Hartwell, of Charlestown.* She d. Jan. 10, 1733-4, a. 26. 2, ———. The chil. of James Green were—
124. Darius, m. Huldah ——; was living in Malden, 1763; removed to Marblehead.

DAVID GREEN, [Samuel, Thomas] brother of the preceding, b. in Malden, 1685; [Gravestone] m. 1, Dec. 10, 1713, MARTHA PRATT, b. Sept. 26, 1690; dau. of John and Martha Pratt. 2, HANNAH MARBLE, sister of John Marble, probably of Stow, b. we suppose in Malden, June 23, 1716, dau. of John and Sarah Marble of Malden. (\~)

They removed, about 1725, from Malden to Reading, where he d. Nov. 6, 1754, a. 70. His Will is dated May 20, 1747; proved Dec. 9, 1754; recorded MiDD. Prob., 27: 92. He mentions wife Hannah, only son David, who is executor, dau. Eunice Evans, gr. dau. Martha Upham. Two other daws. are spoken of as having received their portions; their names are not given. Witnesses, Thomas Green, [105] William Green, jr., [114] James Hovey.

His widow Hannah made her Will March 4, 1757; proved Feb. 4, 1760; recorded Midd. Prob., 50: 68. In this Will she speaks of son-in-law [stepson] David Green of Reading, who is executor; dau. in-law [step-dau.] Elizabeth Walton; dau. in-law Ezra Upham; dau. in-law Eunice Evans; gr. dau. in-law Hannah Walton; gr. son-in-law Thomas Evans, son of Jonathan Evans; gr. dau. in-law Ruth Green; and calls John Marble her brother. Witnesses, Jonathan Green, [117] Thomas Fowle, David Green, jr. [235.]

The children of David Green, as far as ascertained, were— (\~)

134. David, b. Aug. 20, 1714; m. Ruth ——.

135. Martha, b. June 2, 1716; prob. m. --- Upham, and had dau. Martha.

137. Lois, b. ---; m. --- Upham.

138. Eunice, b. ---, 1726; m. Jonathan Evans. They had a son Thomas.

The foregoing were probably b. in Malden, except the last. The births of the first three are given on Malden records.

ISAAC GREEN,2 (Samuel,1 Thomas1) brother of the preceding, b. in Malden, May 29, 1699; m. May 2, 1717, MARY PRATT, b. March 6, 1699, dau. of John and Mary Pratt; perhaps sister of his brother David's wife. She was admitted to the church in Malden, June 12, 1720. [Jacob Green's "Writing Book."

They resided in Malden till about 1734, when they removed to Stoneham, an adjoining town, where they spent the residue of their days. Isaac Green andwife were admitted to the church in Stoneham, April 6, 1735. They seem to have resided in the east part of Stoneham, on the road from Stoneham meeting-house to Lynn, about half a mile west of where the Stoneham Depot now is. Isaac Green was elected tythingman in Stoneham, March 1, 1735-6; selectman, 1745, 1753, 1758. July 13, 1758, Isaac Green of Stoneham and Mary his wife, for £270 "lawful money," conveyed to their dau. Hannah Vinton, wife of Thomas Vinton, lands in Stoneham and Malden. [Midd. Deeds, 58: 345.]

Isaac Green d. Aug. 25, 1765, a. 75. Mary, his wife, d. Aug. 6, 1760, a. 65. Their children, b. in Malden, were—

141. Mary,4 b. Sept. 12, 1721; m. 1, April 29, 1742, Benoni Vinton,4 b. June 12, 1720, son of John Vinton,3 Esq. of Stoneham. The mother of John Vinton,3 Esq. was Hannah Green, daughter of Thomas Green,2 [15.] Benoni Vinton died Oct. 10, 1769, aged 49, and his widow m. 2, April 29, 1769, Ezra Green,4 Esq. [192] 8, Dec. 12, 1777, Samuel Wyman,4 Esq. of Woburn, b. April 4, 1717; d. June 14, 1787. He was son of Samuel,2 grandson of Jacob,3 and gr. gr. son of Lient. JOHN WYMAN1 of Woburn. Her fourth husband was Joseph Lynde4 of Malden, the part now set off as Medford; he was b. July 4, 1716, eldest son of Joseph3 and Mary (Sprague) Lynde. Joseph Lynde,4 was brother of Capt. John Lynde,2 who m. Elizabeth, wid. of Wm. Green.4 [32] They were published Nov. 9, 1792. He d. July 4, 1798, a. 82. [Gravestone.] "Mary, relict of Joseph Lynde, and mother of Rev. Aaron Green, died Dec. 21, 1806, aged 85." [Gravestone in Malden.]

142. Hannah,4 b. March 22, 1722; married, March 31, 1742, Thomas Vinton,4 born in 1717, brother of Benoni Vinton, just mentioned. They lived in the east part of Stoneham, near where the Stoneham Depot now is. Benoni Vinton lived in Malden, near by. For their numerous descendants, see "Vinton Memorial." Thomas Vinton d. March 29, 1763, a. 46. His widow, Hannah, a woman of much energy, survived him more than forty years, and d. April 1, 1804, a. 79.

143. Isaac4 b. —; removed to Blushill, Mo. (a).

144. John4 b. —; removed to Scurry, Me. (a).

Of these two sons, Mr. J. A. Vinton was informed by Daniel Green,7 now living in Stoneham. Mr. Green said that he visited them in those places, respectively, many years ago. Mr. Green further stated that Isaac4 and John Green,4 sold their farms in S. Reading, near Stoneham line, to his grandfather, Dea. Daniel Green,2 [216] probably about 1785. Isaac Green,4 was living in Stoneham, 1774, being a witness to the Will of Josiah Green. [83.]

FOURTH GENERATION.

Rev. THOMAS GREEN,2 (Samuel,1 Thomas1 Thoma1) only son of Capt. Samuel Green,2 of Leicester; b. in Malden 1699; m. Jan. 13, 1725-6, MARTHA LYNEE,4 b. also in Malden, July 6, 1700, dau. of Capt. John Lynde,2 by his third wife Judith, whose maiden name was Worth, and who had been widow of Josias Bucknam of Malden.
FAMILY OF THOMAS GREEN.

His father having become one of the proprietors of the new township of Leicester, and the chief promoter of its settlement, Thomas Green went thinner with his father about the year 1717. His father left him there to look after some cattle at pasture, in the summer season, expecting soon to return. From some cause not now known, the father was detained several weeks. In the mean time, a tradition reports, the son was attacked with a fever, and brought very low. He lived in a kind of cave made by a rock, near a stream of water, which flows through that part of the town now called Greenville. Here he sustained himself from the milk of a cow, whose calf he had fastened to a tree near by, that he might be sure of frequent visits from her during the day. Suffering from a sore upon one of his limbs as a sequel to the fever, he was reduced to a state of great weakness; yet was compelled to crawl from his cave to the brook to get water: and it is said, made use of different roots which fell in his way as medicine. While in this forlorn condition, he was discovered by two men, who had come up from Malden with horses to look after their cattle. It is stated that the courage of young Thomas sunk for the first time, when these two neighbors of his father's refused to take him home with them. He wept at their unkindness. They, however, informed his father of the sad state of his son, and Capt. Samuel Green lost no time in bringing Thomas home to Malden on horseback, weak and emaciated; the journey occupying four days.

Thomas acquired a knowledge of medicine and surgery from two surgeons of the English Buccaneers who boarded with his father for many years; they having come in, and surrendered themselves under an officer of pardon from the English government to such as should surrender themselves within a specified time. These surgeons instructed Thomas in what they knew of those sciences, and gave him a few medical books. With this preparation, added to a vigorous intellect, and uncommon practical wisdom, he was enabled to enter upon and pursue the practice of medicine with great success. His practice extended to various parts of the Province, and even to Rhode Island and Connecticut.

He was not more eminent as a physician than as a divine. Having embraced the sentiments of the Baptists, he organized a church and society of that denomination in South Leicester, and was ordained their pastor in 1735. He supplied their pulpit many years; he disseminated his principles through a wide circle, and his church became large and flourishing. He gave a house and a farm for a parsonage, a lot of land for the meeting-house, and for a burial ground. He and his wife were buried in the lot thus given; but their remains and those of his father Capt. Samuel Green have recently been removed by their descendant, Dr. John Green, [474] to the Rural Cemetery in Worcester. The inscription on his gravestone was—

"Erected in Memory of Doct. Thomas Green. He was pastor of the Baptist Church in Leicester, and a noted physician. He departed this life Aug. 10, 1773, ætatis 74."

Mrs. Martha Green, widow of Rev. Thomas, d. in Leicester, June 20, 1780. Their children were—

145. "Samuel," b. in Leicester, 1726; m. 1, Zerviah Dana; 2, wid. — Fisk.
146. Martha, b. in Leicester, April 28, 1727; m. abt. 1753, Robert Craig, b. Dec. 10, 1730; d. Oct. 13, 1805, e. 81. Martha d. Sept. 17, 1801, æ. 70. Mr. Craig studied med. with Dr. Thomas Green, afterwards his father-in-law; but as Isaac, his brother-in-law, was already practising in town, he concluded not to interfere with his practice, but resumed the business which he learned while young, viz.: the manufacture of spinning-wheels. He was a very worthy and respectable man. By wife Martha he had nine children, viz.: Nathan, David, Abijah, Abin, Esther, Olive, Jeanna, Patty, Hannah.

150. Solomon, b. ; m. Elizabeth Page.
151. Elizabeth, b. ; m. 1, Daniel Horvy. 2, Jan. 16, 1726, Rev. Benjamin Foster, who grad. Yale Coll. 1741; received D. D. from Brown Univ. 1792; succeeded his father-in-law as pastor of the Baptist Ch. in Leicester, where he labored several years; removed thence to Newport, R. I.; thence to the church in Gold Street, New York, where he died of yellow fever in 1798.

53. John Green, (John, John, Thomas,) eldest son of John and Mary Green of Malden; b. in that town, Nov. 25, 1698; m. Jan. 21, 1721, Phoebe Bucknam, b. Oct. 22, 1700, dau. of Samuel and Deborah Bucknam of Malden.

He lived in Malden, and d. there March 10, 1757. His Will, dated July 22, 1755, proved 1757, mentions wife, sons Jacob and John, who are made executors; also dau. Phoebe Mudge, Jennina Burditt, Mehitabel Sargent, and Catharine Green. His children, all b. in Malden, were—

154. Jacob, b. about 1724. Living in Malden, 1763. 2nd wife.
158. Aaron, b. June 10, 1735; d. in infancy.
159. Anna, b. April 24, 1738; d. April 1, 1738.

58. William Green, (William, William, Thomas,) eldest son of William and Elizabeth (Hills) Green of Malden, b. there 1683; m. in Reading by Justice Brown, March 30, 1703, to Sarah Sprague, dau. of Samuel and Sarah Sprague of Malden. Was she a granddaughter of Dea. John and Sarah Green? [21.]

He was a "carpenter" by trade, being thus designated in several contracts, particularly in "Articles of Agreement made and Concluded between ye Select men of Malden and William Green of ye sd town carpender Referring two ye building of a school-house for ye sd Town of Maldon," "ye demissions" of which were to be "twenty feet in Length and sixteen feet in breadth, six foot between joynets," with "a chimney in sd house nere seven foots between ye gans," and "two windores one on ye South and ye other on ye East," and a "dower of plain Boords." "Ye above sd William Green to be paid 19 pounds for ye above said work and where with all to do ye same." The contract is dated Oct. 27, 1712, and is printed in full in the "Bi-Centennial Book of Maldon," p. 186. The building appears to have been the first separate edifice erected in Malden for educational purposes, and must have presented a strange contrast to the spacious and well ventilated school-houses of the present day.

He continued to reside in Malden till about the year 1719 or 1720, when he with his family removed to Leicester; his father's cousin, Capt. Samuel Green, [10] being the leader in that movement, and many Malden families following,

* The proof of his being born in 1683 is found in the Probate Records, thus: "Oct. 28 1700. John Greenwood, Ebenezer Hills, and John Lynde are found in the sum of £250 as guardians of William Green, son of William Green, late of Malden, a minor of fourteen years of age." John Lynde was his step-father. Ebenezer Hills was his uncle.
† "Justis Brown" (so the original Town Record)—"Capt. John Brown, Esquire"—seems to have tied the nuptial knot for many of the young people of other towns in those days. He married William Green's brother Nathaniel [50]; he married Daniel Green [51] to Mary Bucknam; he also m. John French of Braintree to Mary Vinson of Woburn.
FAMILY OF THOMAS GREEN.

We find his name among the fifty families to whom was granted the eastern half of the original township, which half now constitutes the town of Leicester. [Midd. Deeds, 29 : 529.] The western half was incorporated as the town of Spencer in 1753.

He resided after this in Leicester, of which town he was treasurer from 1736 to 1743. The time of his death is not known. He lived certainly till 1755; since under date of May 19, in that year, we find a deed from him and his wife Sarah to their son Nahum Green, of land bounded by Dr. Green's land, and also by land "conveyed this day to my son William." [Worc. Deeds, 39 : 10.

The children of William and Sarah Green were—born in Malden—

BENJAMIN GREEN, (William, William, Thomas,) brother of the preceding, b. in Malden, April 26, 1657; m. CHRISTIAN _______. We have no account of his family. (-)

He lived in Malden till after he came of age. His uncle, Ebenezer Hills, was his guardian. He received, Nov. 23, 1709, from his uncle Isaac and John Green, executors of the Will of Capt. William Green, his grandfather, a legacy in part, at the rate of six pounds, on account of said legacy, by a conveyance of land. Received and entered May 28, 1711. [Midd. Deeds, 10 : 595.] He purchased land of his brother William, June 1, 1710. In that and other deeds, he is called "carpenter." April 16, 1712, Benjamin and Nathaniel Green [his brother] for £146, bought 27 acres in Charlestown, the part now Stoneham, of Joseph Underwood of Charlestown. The original deed, coming through the hands of Rev. Nathaniel Green [170], and Ebenezer his son [313], is now in the possession of the compiler.

Within two years of the last date, we find him married, and settled in Berwick, Me. May 31, 1714, Benjamin Green, carpenter, and Christian his wife, of Berwick, in the county of York in the province of Maine in New England for £2. 5. of current money, convey to Edward Bucknam of Malden a certain woodlot in Malden, containing 5 acres and 63 poles. This piece of land has the same boundaries and must be the same land with that which he received in 1708 from his uncles Isaac and John, in part payment of a legacy, as stated above. Witnesses, William Green, Sarah Green, [his brother and his brother's wife.] Received and entered, Jan. 21, 1722-3. [Midd. Deeds, 23 : 68.

1718, May 19, William Green, jr. of Malden, for £300 current money, sells to Benjamin Green, carpenter, of Berwick in the county of York and Province of Massachusetts Bay, two tracts of land in the bounds of Charlestown in the first division of woodlots, one tract containing 124 acres, bounded S. on land of Nathaniel Green, [60] the other containing 114 acres, &c. Both of these tracts must have been within the bounds of Stoneham. Witnesses, Nathaniel Green, Edward Bucknam. Received May 23, 1720. [Midd. Deeds, 21 : 131.]

Edward Bucknam, b. March 23, 1692, was son of Josiah and Judith Bucknam. His mother was 3d. wife of Capt. John Lynde, Benjamin Green's step-father.

* A tradition in Leicester states that Benjamin Green was captured and carried off by the Indians; that he acquired and retained Indian habits, and, after returning home, went back to them. How much truth there may be in this story we cannot determine. (-)

After the foregoing was not only "in type," but actually printed, a letter was received from the town clerk of Berwick, Me., stating that he had searched the old records of that town and found that Benjamin Green² and Christian Main were m. at Berwick, Sept. 9, 1713. He could find nothing further of them or their family.

Capt. NATHANIEL GREEN,⁴ [William,² William,² Thomas,³] brother of the preceding, b. in Malden, Sept. 28, 1689; m. 1, in Reading, by "Justis" Brown,⁴ April 21, 1713, to ELIZABETH SPRAGUE, dau. of Samuel and Sarah Sprague of Malden, and sister of his brother William's wife, 2, in 1735, MARY STICKWELL, presumed to be of Sutton. They were published Dec. 14, 1735. He lived at "Charlestown-End," [incorp. 1725 as Stoneham] about eight years, from 1715 to 1723, doubtless on the land purchased in 1712, by himself and his brother Benjamin, of Joseph Underwood. See preceding paragraph.

There being no church or house of worship at that time in Charlestown-End, he attended public worship at Malden, only three or four miles distant; and was admitted to the church there Jan. 21, 1722-3. His wife Elizabeth had been admitted to the same church, April 8, 1722. Of that church Rev. Joseph Emerson had been ordained pastor, Oct. 31, 1721, after the removal of Rev. David Parsons to Leicester.

He removed to Leicester about the year 1723, where his brother William and his relatives Capt. Samuel and Thomas Green were already settled. He was there a man of some consideration; and received a commission as "Captain of the first foot company in Leicester," Dec. 12, 1743. Within a year war broke out between France and Great Britain, and Capt. Green was frequently called on to have his command in readiness to meet the enemy, as the following order will show:—

"Sir, This moment I Received the Governor's Express, and pursuant there to You are Required In his majesty's name on Your utmost Peril to Draw out of Your Military Ward twenty five men compleetly armed and furnished with Ammunition and fourteen Days Provision and march them without the Least Delay to Worcester and from thence to Proceed to Boston a French Invasion being every moment expected. I say fail not at Your Peril.

"Worcester, Sept. 22, 1746. JOHN CHANDLER, Col."

"Either you or Capt. Whitemore, with two more Commission officers must go, & don't fail."

Directed—"In his majesty's service, to Capt. Nathl. Green, in Leicester."

We copy the above from the original order, now before us.

Some time in the latter part of his life he resided in Sutton, as we infer from some deeds given by Nathaniel Green of Sutton to Nathaniel Green of Leicester; and one or two deeds from other parties to Nathaniel Green of Sutton. He returned to Leicester before his death, and d. there.

"Capt. Nathaniel Green died at Leicester, Sept. 27, 1774, a little after 7 o'clock at Night." [Record made by Ebenezer Green. [313.]

The children of Nathaniel and Elizabeth Green were—

167. Elizabeth,⁶ b. in Malden, Nov. 3, 1714; m. Benjamin SANDERS, Feb. 8, 1737-8. She died at Woodstock, Vt., Aug. 27, 1801, "a. 87 y. 9 mos. 13 days."

FAMILY OF THOMAS GREEN.

The foregoing record is copied from the original record in the handwriting of Capt. Nathaniel Green, except that the marriages of Winefred and Benjamin are from a record in the handwriting of his son Phineas; and the marriages of Nathaniel and Phineas are from other sources.

63. JOHN GREEN,* (John,3 William,2 Thomas,1) eldest son of John and Isabel Green of Stoneham; b. March 22, 1699-1700; m. 1, SARAH ——. 2, 1755, widow JERUSA NORWOOD of Lynn; published Dec. 5, 1755. She was an excellent woman; remembered for her piety by some now living. She d. Oct. 1805, a. 84.

He resided in Stoneham; was constable there 1741. He inherited from his father that part of the homestead which was situated on the west side of the road leading from Malden to Reading; which included land once belonging to THOMAS GREEN,1 the ancestor of the whole family.

Inventory, Feb. 22, 1774; amount real and personal, £540. 5. 5.; included land in east part of Stoneham, on the road from Malden to Reading, and adjoining land of widow Hannah Vinton, [142] Thomas Vinton her son, and Dea. Joseph Green [80.]

His children were, by first marriage—

174. Sarah,5 b. Dec. 4, 1727; m. —— Pollard. They had Sarah, Susanna.
175. Ehebo,5 b. May 16, 1731; d. April 22, 1741.
176. Elizabeth,6 b. April 17, 1734; m. 1756, Josiah Green,5 [185.]
177. Marcha,6 b. May 26, 1739; d. April 15, 1741.

By second marriage—

178. John,5 b. about 1758; never married; inherited the homestead, where he lived with his mother and half-sister, Mary Norwood, till the death of the former, Oct. 1803; the latter dying soon after. Subsequently William Green [476] and wife lived in his house and took care of him; to whom at his death he left the house and farm. He d. abt. 1842, a. abt. 84.
179. Jerusha,6 b. ——, 1760; d. Sept. 5, 1785, a. 15. [Gravestone.]

66. JONAS GREEN,* (John,3 William,2 Thomas,1) brother of the preceding, b. in Stoneham, April 11, 1718; m. June 2, 1745, MARY HAY of Stoneham, probably sister of Capt. Peter Hay, who m. his sister Isabel Green. (−)

He resided in Malden, probably in the part now Melrose, and near his brother John of Stoneham; was a man of note in the town, being selectman every year from 1761 to 1771, inclusive—eleven years. His mother Isabel mentions him in her Will, Feb. 19, 1762. His children were—

180. Jonas,5 b. July 20, 1747. He was a witness of the Will of Josiah Green* [83] in 1774. (−)
181. Mary,5 b. Oct. 5, 1756. Her mother having died, her father was appointed her guardian, Aug. 4, 1773, doubtless in reference to property left by her grandfather Hay.

60. Dea. JOSEPH GREEN,* (Joseph,3 Henry,2 Thomas,1) eldest son of Dea. Joseph5 and Hannah Green of Malden; b. there Oct. 26, 1701; m. abt. 1726, RUTH ——. (−)
FOURTH GENERATION.

He resided in Malden till about 1735, when he removed to Stoneham, an adjoining town, where his sister Joanna Dexter, his brother Josiah, and many others of his kindred were already settled. He lived in the east part of that town. His farm included a considerable extent east and west of where the Stoneham Depot now is. He was selectman of Stoneham 1747, 1749, and 1754-5-8. He was chosen deacon 1747, and accepted the office July 12, 1747. He sold about half of his farm, April 16, 1770, to Thomas Vinton of Stoneham. Seven years afterwards, viz., April 15, 1777, the other half of the farm, then owned by his son Joseph, and a pew in the meeting-house, was sold to Ezra Vinton, brother of Thomas. In the interval between these sales, Dea. Joseph Green removed to Chelsea; we know not the exact time, but as he was in Stoneham, and chosen on a committee at town meeting, Oct. 11, 1773, it must have been after this date. Mrs. Ruth Green, his wife, d. in Stoneham, Nov. 3, 1770, a. 63. [Gravestone.] Dea. Joseph Green probably died previous to April 15, 1777; the "Jr." before used, being then omitted from his son's name. Their children were—

183. Hannah, b. —; m. Samuel Green of Malden. [298.]
184. Lydia, b. April 14, 1737; m. Nathan Lynde of Malden, Dec. 1739. They had Nathan, William, who settled at Gardner, and Joseph, who m. Hannah Waitt, and succeeded to his father's ample farm.

We find no others on record. («)

JOSIAH GREEN, brother of the preceding, b. in Malden, Sept. 25, 1709; m. May 10, 1734, Esther Thompson, b. March 16, 1716; dau. of Joshua and Martha Thompson of Woburn.

Soon after marriage he settled in Stoneham, of which town he was constable 1742, and selectman 1750-1-2-3-6-9, 1763-4, 1772. He d. April, 1774. His Will, dated April 4, 1774; proved May 3, 1774; recorded Midd. Prob., 55: 260; mentions no wife, and no dau. Speaks of "my two sons," Josiah and Stephen, clearly implying that the testator had no others. To son Josiah he bequeaths most of his estate. Witnesses, Jonas Green, Jr. [180] Isaac Green, [143] David Green. [134.]

The children of Josiah and Esther Green were—

185. Josiah, b. March 5, 1735; m. 1, 1756, Elizabeth Green, [178.] 2, 1799, Sarah Skinner.
186. Stephen, b. Aug. 19, 1738; m. 1, Deborah Oakes of Malden; published Sept. 15, 1759. 2, Sarah. He lived in Malden; d. 1784. His inventory (amount £91. 18. 8) was taken Nov. 23, 1784. Widow Sarah, admx. March 31, 1786, his real estate was divided to widow Sarah and son Stephen, a minor. [Midd. Prob., 97: 190 and 09: 8.] («)

JABEZ GREEN, brother of the preceding, b. in Malden, Sept. 8, 1718; m. Mary. («)

He lived in Stoneham from about the time of his marriage till about 1750, when he removed to Leicester. Further information respecting him is wanting, except that he and Mary had the following children—

Born in Stoneham—

187. Jabez, b. June 13, 1743; m. Lucy Kent in Leicester, Aug. 9, 1764. («)
188. Nathan, b. March 25, 1746; d. young.

Rev. JACOB GREEN, 4 (Jacob, 3 Henry, 2 Thomas,) eldest son of Jacob 5 and Dorothy Green of Malden, b. in that town, “Jan. 22, 1721–2, about two of the clock in the morning, being Monday,” [Jacob Green’s “Writing Book,”] m. 1, “Wednesday,” June 14, 1747, ANNA STRONG of Brookhaven, Long Island, who d. Nov. 28, 1756. 2, Oct. 19, 1757, ELIZABETH PIERSON, dau. of Rev. John Pierson, of Woodbridge, N. J.

Losing his father in his second year, he removed, when a child, with his step-father to Killingly, Ct. 4 He “went to learning, Dec. 10, 1738” 4 entered Harvard College in July, 1740, and devoted himself assiduously to study. On graduating in July, 1744, he taught school in Sutton, till Aug. 1745, and then, at the solicitation of Whitefield, consented to go to the Orphan House in Georgia. Having accompanied that celebrated preacher as far as Elizabethtown, he was there released from his engagement, and, by the advice of Rev. Jonathan Dickinson of that place, he put himself under the care of the Presbytery of New York. He was licensed to preach in Sept. 1845, and on the 29th of that month, preached at Hanover, N. J., his first sermon. Receiving, not long after, a call to settle in Hanover, he was ordained there in Nov. 1746. He remained there as pastor more than forty-three years.

While actively discharging the duties of pastor, he found it necessary, in order to support a large family, to engage in the practice of medicine; which he pursued for thirty years.

His talents and virtues soon brought him into public notice. He was elected a member of the first Board of Trustees of the College of New Jersey, under the second charter, obtained from Gov. Belcher in 1748. Rev. Samuel Davies having declined the Presidency of the College, (though he accepted it the following year,) Mr. Green was, in the autumn of 1758, elected Vice-President, and for a few months was at the head of the Institution. Of the College he was ever a warm and efficient friend.

On the breaking out of the war of Independence, he was active in the cause of his country. He was elected to the Provincial Congress; and was chairman of the Committee which drafted the State Constitution. He published a series of articles, signed Eunenes, against a paper currency, for which he was much abused.

He published several sermons; and, as an active, devout man, did much to enstamp on the community a high moral and religious character. He died of influenza, after a short illness, May 24, 1790. In the church-yard at Hanover, N. J., a monument was erected, upon which is the following inscription:—

Under this stone are deposited the remains of the Rev. Jacob Green, A. M., first pastor of the Hanover church, who died 24 May, A. D. 1790, aged 68 years, of which 44 were spent in the gospel ministry. He was a man of

FAMILY OF THOMAS GREEN.

He was captain of a military company, and a leading man in Stoneham for many years; and the affairs of that town appear to have been managed very much under his direction. He was town clerk and town treasurer from March, 1748, to March, 1760, except one year, [1759]; also, from March, 1769, till his death, except two years, [1792, 1793]; being twenty-five years in all. He was selectman twenty years, between 1752 and 1775. He was a member of the Convention assembled in Boston, Jan. 1788, to ratify the Constitution of the United States.

About 1772, he removed to Chelsea; resided there some years, perhaps ten or more; then removed back to Stoneham, where he d. Aug. 25, 1795. His gravestone bears the following inscription: “Erected In Memory of Capt. Jonathan Green, who died August 25, 1795, aged 75 years, 9 months, and 1 day. It is with regret we here part with a loving friend, and valuable member of society, one who in his domestic station was joy’d and Reverenced, and in his more public life gained the general applause. One who serv’d the Town in the most important offices for many years, even to the close of life, to the universal satisfaction of those who appointed him. The adjacent Towns have reason likewise to join with Us in Lamenting the loss of so useful a Man.”

His Will, dated July 16, 1795; Midd. Prob., 80 : 440; is very long, occupying sixteen folio pages. This great length is due, not so much to the amount of property the testator had to bestow, although this was considerable—215 acres—as to the minuteness of the directions he wished to give, touching his bequests. The boundaries of the several parcels of land devised to his grandchildren, are given with uncommon particularity. Various articles of personal property are also minutely described. He even gives particular directions about the size of his gravestone. His children, all b. in Stoneham, were—by first wife—

239. Jonathan, b. Feb. 20, 1745-6; m. his cousin Doccas Hay, 1769.

By second wife—

260. Infant, b. Nov. 9, 1761; d. same day.

Dea. SAMUEL GREEN, (Thomas, Samuel, Thomas, Thomas,) eldest son of Rev. Thomas Green of Leicester; b. in Leicester, 1733; m. 1, Jan. 26, 1733, ZEVIAN DANA of Ashford, Ct., who was b. 1733, and d. May 25, 1797, a. 64. 2, Widow ——— Fisk of Sturbridge, who d. July 2, 1810. Dea. Samuel Green d. in the autumn (Oct. 7) of 1810, a. 84.
FAMILY OF THOMAS GREEN.

He lived in Leicester; was a most worthy man; a deacon more than 50 years of the Baptist church, of which his father was pastor. After the dismissal of the Rev. Dr. Foster, [151] his father’s successor, the church was destitute of a pastor several years. During this period, he devoted himself with much ability, energy and piety to the interests of the church, which under his labors continued to prosper. His death was greatly lamented.

His children, b. in Leicester, were—
277—278. Three infants, d. soon, names unknown.
281. Elijah, b. May 8, 1760; d. in the service of his country, in camp at Roxbury, Dec. 25, 1776, [1775?] a. 16.

Dr. JOHN GREEN, [Thomas, Samuel, Thomas, Thomas,] brother of the preceding; b. at Leicester, Aug. 14, 1738; m. 1, Mary Osgood of Worcester, who was b. Aug. 31, 1740, and d. Sept. 5, 1761. 2, Mary Ruggles, b. at Sandwich, Cape Cod, 1740, dau. of Brig. Gen. Timothy Ruggles of Sandwich, afterwards of Hardwick. She d. at Worcester, June 16, 1814.

He studied medicine with his father, Rev. Thomas Green of Leicester, who was also a physician; and entered on the practice of the “healing art,” in Worcester early in life. He was a successful physician; having adopted the practice of watching over his patient like a nurse, and remaining day and night, if the case required it, till the disease was removed. He was the grandfather of the justly celebrated Dr. John Green, now living in Worcester. He d. at Worcester, Oct. 29, 1799, a. 63. His children, all, it is believed, b. in Worcester, were—by first marriage—
294. John, b. April 1, 1758; d. Sept. 20, 1761.
296. Thomas, b. Jan. 8, 1761; m. Salome Barlow of Sutton, Oct. 8, 1782.

By second marriage—
297. John, b. March 18, 1763; m. Mary Barber of Worcester.
298. Timothy, b. Jan. 6, 1755; m. Mary Martin of Providence, R. I.

* Thomas Green, Jr., was published to Hannah Bugbee, Nov. 16, 1755. [Leicester Records.] Whether this were the same person with Hannah Fox in the text, the compiler has no means of determining. He has it from correspondence that Thomas Green’s first wife was Hannah Fox. If she were widow Bugbee, and her maiden name Fox, the discrepancy is reconciled.

He resided during many years in Leicester, where all his children were born. He removed at length to Charlton, where he d. March 21, 1791, "aged 70 years wanting one month."

He was a Baptist clergyman, and an acceptable preacher for his time. He labored in Leicester, Spencer, Charlton, and other towns in that vicinity. For a time he supplied a vacant church in Boston. He was noted for firmness and decision of character; was an earnest Christian, a plain, evangelical preacher, and was greatly beloved by a large circle, whose spiritual wants had been supplied by his ministrations. He was a strenuous assertor of religious liberty, and did much towards bringing about that change of public sentiment which, within the memory of many living, resulted in the entire separation of church and state. His diary, now in the possession of his descendants, shows that the

Of this institution he was immediately made a tutor, and was in 1785 placed in the chair of Natural Philosophy. In 1787, he was ordained pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church in Philadelphia, where he remained till 1812. In 1792, he was with Bishop White selected chaplain of Congress; and the two were reflected every year till 1800, when the seat of government was removed to Washington. In 1812, he was elected President of New Jersey College, which important post he resigned in 1822. He edited the Christian Advocate, a monthly religious periodical, for over two years.

* A most remarkable family! Where can a parallel be found? Eight children born after the father had passed his sixty-fifth year! Rebecca, the youngest, b. in her father's 78th year! Some twelve or more of his great-grandchildren older than some of his children! Three dau., named Sarah, two living at the same time! On the 27th April, 1806, Josiah Green had a dau. Susanna, a gr. dau. Paulina Bucknam, and a gr. grandchild, all born on the same day! The same accoucheur, Dr. Hart of South Reading, and the same women attended in all three of the cases!!! This is repeated on good authority.
A Latin inscription (from the pen of Rev. Samuel Miller, D. D.) upon a monument to his memory erected at Princeton, N. J., adds the following:

"He resigned the Presidency, and devoted the rest of his life to the study of the sacred Scriptures, to preaching the gospel, and to the management of the common concerns of the church of God. After a long and most useful life, he fell asleep in Jesus, at Philadelphia, on the nineteenth day of May, A.D., 1848, in the eighty-sixth year of his age. What was mortal, was, on the 23d day of the same month, by many friends, grieving, but not without most blessed hopes, deposited in this tomb. Gifted with very many mental endowments, and with fluent and graceful eloquence, he always possessed great and salutary influence in the General Assembly and other councils of the Church. He was a man of sincere and distinguished piety; a citizen zealous for the public welfare; and a patron of literature and science. On account of the distinguished virtues of this venerable man, and his most faithful and useful services to the College of New Jersey, the trustees have caused this monument to be erected."

His Autobiography was published by the Carters, of New York, 1848.

His children were—by first marriage—

404. James Sprague, b. ——, 1790; m. Isabella McCulloch.

By second marriage—

405. Ashbel, b. 1811 (?) grad. at N. J. Coll.; m. 1835 (?) Mary Julina of Princeton, N. J. They have one child, 406. Mary. He studied law, and was prosecuting attorney in Philadephia for many years. Removed 1846 to Texas; practiced law there; was President of the Texas University; now resides at Pas Christion; generally called Pass Christian, Miss., on the Gulf of Mexico.

SAMUEL GREEN, 5 (Samuel, 4 Samuel, 3 Samuel, 2 Thomas, 1) eldest son of Samuel Green 1 of Malden; b. there April 15, 1732; m. 1, about 1752, HANNAH GREEN, 6 (182) dau. of Dea. Joseph 7 and Ruth Green of Stoneham. They were published Dec. 1, 1762. It is said that she d. of convulsions, occasioned by hearing the cannon at the time of some military operation; perhaps the battle of Bunker Hill. Not long after, he m. 2, MARY LANMAN of Cambridge. He saw her, when she was visiting, or it may be sojourning, at the house of Joseph Lynde of Malden; and though much older, made proposals to her, and married her.* It is stated that she was of a highly respectable family.

He lived in Malden, of which town he appears to have been selectman, 1758, 1761, 1762. The part of Malden where he lived, is now the town of Melrose. It is said he never used glasses. He d. about 1820, a. 91. He had no children by his first wife. By second wife, he had—

407. Samuel, 5 b. ——; m. 1, Sarah Sprague. She d. March 17, 1809, a. 27. [Gravestone.] 2, Anna Sprague. They were sisters, and dau. of Phinehas Sprague of Malden.

408. James Lanman, 5 b. ——; m. Susan Fowle of Woburn.

409. Peter, 5 b. ——; unm.; d. about 30 years of age.

* These statements were made to the compiler by grand-dau. of Mary (Lanman) Green, and as they wear an aspect of probability, he ventures to insert them. It is well known that during the occupation of Cambridge by the American army, many of the inhabitants were obliged to retire to other towns.

FAMILY OF THOMAS GREEN.

He inherited from his grandfather, Elder Daniel Green,3 [31] in 1789, the homestead of the latter, in Stoneham, amounting to a handsome property, including land formerly owned by Henry Green3 [36.] Hence Thomas,1 his father, gave him by Will only ten shillings. His grandson, Daniel Green,4 [754] states that he bought the farms of Isaac4 [143] and John Green,4 [144] in South Reading, bordering on Stoneham, where the village of Greenwood now is, when those brothers removed to the “District of Maine,” probably about 1785.

He lived in Stoneham from about the time of his first marriage, till the time just indicated, 1785. During that time he was an active business man, and an influential citizen in that town. He was chosen deacon of the church, 1774; was selectman of Stoneham, 1769, 1773-5-7-9-1781-1782; town treasurer, 1775-6-7-8-1780-1. About 1785, he seems to have made the purchase from Isaac and John Green, and to have gone to occupy it. We know, from Stoneham records, that about that time he removed from Stoneham to South Reading—just over the line. In Dec. 1788, he petitioned to be annexed to Stoneham. At first that town consented, but at the next town meeting, in Jan. 1789, recalled the vote and had it erased from their records! The record of his second marriage says, “Dea. Daniel Green of Reading,” whence it appears that he was living in Reading in 1801. He continued there the remainder of his life. The locality has within a few years received the name of Greenwood, we suppose from respect to him and his family. The Boston and Maine Railroad now passes through the place, and the cars stop many times a day at the “Greenwood Railroad Station.” It is close upon the borders of Stoneham; and some of the Stoneham people are accommodated by it. The homestead was inherited by Charles Green,6 [436] the deacon’s youngest son by first marriage; and he now occupies it.

He was, however, buried in Stoneham, where he had lived so long. He d. April 28, 1818, a. 86. [Gravestone.] His grandson, Daniel Green,4 says, that the plate on his coffin stated his age as 84, which is nearer the truth.

His children were—by first wife—

429. 3Daniel,6 b. Sept. 20, 1761; m. 1, Sarah Evans, 1789. 2, Mary Evans, 1807.
430. 4Nathan,6 b. March 31, 1769; m. Betsey Orr of Charlestown.
431. 5Reuben,6 b. March 14, 1767; m. — Nicholl of Lynnfield.
432. 6Ruth,6 b. April 15, 1769; m. Dec. 1814, (second wife,) Thomas Green of Stoneham. He d. Oct. 4, 1842, a. 83. [Gravestone.] He was not of this family. For his parentage, see Vernon Memorial, p. 221, note. By his first wife, Anna Knight, m. 1780, he was the father of Rev. Samuel Green, b. in Stoneham, March 3, 1792; H. C. 1816; ord. pastor, Reading, Sept. 30, 1829; installed pastor Essex St. Church, Boston, Mar. 26, 1823; d. Nov. 6, 1834. Thomas and Anna Green were also parents of Rev. David Green, b. Nov. 15, 1797; Y. C. 1821; chosen secretary A. B. C. F. Missions, Oct. 3, 1828; resigned Sept. 12, 1848; now resides from the ministry on a farm in Windsor, Vt. Mrs. Ruth Green d. Aug. 5, 1845, a. 76.

434. 8Rhoda,6 b. —; m. Thaddeus Perry, who d. Aug. 14, 1833, a. 66. [Gravestone.] They had Nathan, Benjamin M., Ruth, Rhoda, Daniel, etc., of Stoneham. She d. a widow of 24 years, in Stoneham, Aug. 6, 1857.
435. 9Mary,6 b. —; m. about 1800, Samuel Larrabee.
436. 10Charles,6 b. —; m. Mary Green,6 dau. of Aaron Green6 of South Reading. [487.] He inherited and now owns the homestead in Greenwood, South Reading.

255. Capt. William Green, (William, William, Samuel, Thomas,) eldest son of William and Susanna Green of Reading; b. there Oct. 21, 1737; m. 1, ——. 2, July 3, 1800, Joanna Hadley of Medford, b. 1759.

His father left him property, but not the homestead. He resided in Reading, near Stoneham line. Petitioned in 1768 to be annexed to Stoneham, but it was not done. He was, it is said, a revolutionary soldier. At the time of his second marriage, the records speak of him as “of Reading,” but he d. at Stoneham, April 5, 1803, a. 66. His widow Joanna d. there, June 27, 1811, a. 61. His children, all by first wife, were—

481. Rebecca, b. ——; m. Colina, and went to Maine.

482. Mehitable, b. ——; m. Skillister of Salem.

258. Aaron Green, (William, William, Samuel, Thomas,) brother of the preceding; b. in Reading, Nov. 30, 1754; m. 1, ——— HAYES, or more probably HAY. 2, Feb. 19, 1818, Sarah Green, b. May 17, 1773, dau. of Jonathan and Dorcas (Hay) Green of Stoneham. [490.]

He lived in South Reading; d. some years since. His widow Sarah now owns the “old John Green place,” in the present town of Malrose, two furlongs, perhaps, east of the Stoneham R. R. Station. This place once belonged to Thomas Green, the original emigrant, as we learn from an expression contained in the Will of John Green of Stoneham, b. 1672; d. 1736. [27.] It may have been situated, formerly, in Malden; but for much more than a century it was in the extreme east part of Stoneham, from which in 1853, it was detached, and annexed to the present town of Malrose.

This property descended from John Green to his son John Green, [93] and from him to his only son John Green, [128] who was a bachelor. Before the death of the latter, he devised it to William Green, or, more truly, to his wife, Abigail Green, [476, 469] who lived with him many years, and took care of him in his old age, till the very end. Mrs. Abigail Green, at her death, Nov.

* John Green says, 1736, “it was my grandfather’s;” we assume that he meant his grandfather Green.
FIFTH GENERATION.

6, 1846, left the same property to her sister, Sarah, widow of Aaron Green, whose name stands at the head of this article; to descend at her death to her only dau. Abigail, wife of Edmund B. Southwick. It will be seen soon, but for two hundred years past, we suppose it has remained in the hands of the Green family.

The children of Aaron Green, all by first wife, were—

484. Sarah, b. —; m. Capt. Lowell Fowler of Stoneham. She d. before Jan. 15, 1804; since then he m. Anna Green, b. Oct. 28, 1782, dau. of Thomas and Anna (Knights) Green of Stoneham. This Thomas Green was not of this family. See [432], and Vinton Memorial, p. 221, note.

485. Susanna, b. —; m. Benjamin Emerson of South Reading.

486. Elizabeth, b. March 25, 1788; m. Jan. 1804, Capt. John Waitt of South Reading; b. Aug. 21, 1777, son of Micah and Hannah (Waitt) of Malden. She d. July 9, 1855, a. 70. He d. May 6, 1831, a. 73. See Vinton Memorial, [419.]

487. Mary, b. —; m. Charles Green, b. 1785. [436.]

488. Rebecca, b. —; m. Charles Waitt, b. June 22, 1795, son of Micah and Phebe (Howard) Waitt, and nephew of Capt. John above. See Vinton Memorial, [1142.]

259. JONATHAN GREEN, (Jonathan, Jonathan, Samuel, Thomas,) only son of Capt. Jonathan and Sarah (Gould) Green of Stoneham; b. there, Feb. 20, 1745-6; m. May 8, 1769, his cousin Dorcas Hay, b. Oct. 19, 1744, dau. of Peter and Dorcas (Gould) Hay of Stoneham.

He lived in Stoneham, in the eastern part. His father at his death, in 1795, devised 95 acres of land, not to Jonathan, but to the children of the latter, Abigail, Sarah, Jonathan, Peter. He d. March 1, 1820, a. 74. His widow, Dorcas, d. Sept. 3, 1833, a. 89. Their children were—

489. Abigail, b. Oct. 13, 1770; m. Nov. 21, 1811, (second wife,) William Green. [476.] Their only child, Abigail, m. Oct. 19, 1843, Edmund B. Southwick; this couple now occupy "the old John Green place."

490. Sarah, b. May 17, 1772; m. Feb. 19, 1818, Aaron Green [258] of South Reading. She is still living.

494. Peter, b. April 13, 1783; m. 1, Rebecca (Green) Hosmer, 1812. 2, Lydia Sargent, 1817. 3, Elizabeth (Waitt) Shute, 1822.

265. JESSE GREEN, (Jonathan, Jonathan, Samuel, Thomas,) brother of the preceding; b. in Stoneham, May 20, 1767; m. Dec. 14, 1786, his cousin, Sarah Bucknam, b. July 24, 1763, dau. of Ebenezer and Mary (Hay) Bucknam of Stoneham. Ebenezer Bucknam was brother to Jesse's mother; they were children of Dea. Edward Bucknam.

He lived in Stoneham, northeast of Spot Pond, on the old road to Medford. His father, Capt. Jonathan Green, left by Will, 1795, to the two children of our Jesse, 120 acres of land; not, however, of the best quality. Jesse d. Jan. 30, 1799, a. 32. His widow, Sarah, survived him nearly 38 years, and d. of cancer in utero, Oct. 6, 1836, a. 73. Their children were—

* His wife's mother, Dorcas Gould, b. Nov. 16, 1716, was sister of Sarah Gould, mother of Jonathan Green, in the text. Mrs. Dorcas (Gould) Hay, widow of Peter Hay, d. May 26, 1815, "a. 95 y. 6 mo. 10 da." [Gravestone.]
FAMILY OF THOMAS GREEN.

SIXTH GENERATION.

Hitherto we have kept up, as far as the records permitted, some knowledge of nearly every family. Henceforth, from the emigration of families, and the consequent lack of records, many families will disappear.

280.

SAMUEL GREEN, (Samuel, Thomas, Samuel, Thomas, Thomas,) only surviving son of Dea. Samuel and Zeriah (Dana) Green of Leicester; b. there, Nov. 22, 1727; m. April 15, 1779, HANNAH KINNEY of Sutton, b. Oct. 8, 1759; who d. at Leicester, Dec. 22, 1845, "a. 69 y. 2 mo. 14 da." He resided at Leicester, on the old homestead of his grandfather, Rev. Thomas [48]; but becoming reduced in property, he removed to Pembroke, N. Y.; at what time we are not informed. He and his wife were originally pious. He d. at Pembroke, N. Y., Feb. 2, 1832, "a. 74 y. 2 mo. 11 da." His widow Hannah returned to Leicester; lived with her son-in-law, John King, Esq., and d. as above. Children—

499. Lucretia, b. July 22, [19—K.] 1789; m. Daniel [David—K.] Fairbanks; d. in 1820, [Jan. 1821—K.]; was buried at Woodstock, Ct., "leaving one child," [2—K.]. Mr. Fairbanks d. in Grafton, the summer of 1837. They had three children, who are now living; two of them in Grafton, Mass.

500. Sophia, b. May 28, 1785; m. John King of Leicester, b. Sept. 29, 1776, who is now living there; at an advanced age, an intelligent and upright man. She was an excellent woman; d. Feb. 4, 1854, having had six children, one of whom, Maria, the wife of Artemas Knowlton, now lives in East Douglas, Mass., and has furnished much of the information here given of her grandfather Green's family.

502. [Samuel, Dana, b. Feb. 9, 1788, [1790—K.]; m. Susan Gibbs of Prov., R. I.

504. Hadassah Estley, b. March 1, 1795, [Hadassah Eliza, b. March 9, 1794—K.]; m. 1810, Asa Mann of Leicester; removed to the vicinity of St. Catharino's, Canada West, where she d. Feb. 4, 1826, leaving three children.

Her husband also d. at the same place.

Of the above ten children, only Nos. 502 and 503, are now living; and of the deceased, all except 499 and 504 d. in Leicester, and were interred in the cemetery near the Baptist Church in South Leicester. All of the children who lived to adult years, were, it is believed, truly religious.

284.

ELIAS GREEN, (Thomas, Thomas, Samuel, Thomas, Thomas,) eldest son of Thomas and Hannah Green of Leicester; b. there, Jan. 25, 1756; m. Nov. 1789, MARY SMITH of Leicester; b. Sept. 13, 1764; she d. Oct. 27, 1803.

FAMILY OF THOMAS GREEN.

364.

EBENEZER GREENE, (Nathaniel, Nathaniel, William, William, Thomas,) brother of the preceding, b. in Leicester, April 23, 1769; m. May 1, 1796, SYDOL HITCHCOCK, b. in Brimfield, Feb. 2, 1774; but then resident in Monson.

Immediately after marriage, he removed to Belchertown, and settled upon a large farm in the southwest part of the town. He was educated chiefly at Leicester Academy; and for his time was well educated. For many years he was accustomed to teach school, and was known in all that vicinity as "Master Greene." He was noted for the exactness and clearness of his methods of teaching. He was fond of antiquarian research, and preserved with scrupulous care all the old family papers which had descended to him. Having had the care of his parents in their declining years, and being the executor of his father's will, many of the old family papers fell into his hands. These have been of great service to the compiler in furnishing materials for this sketch.

He took an active part in building up the Baptist Church and Society in Belchertown. He was many years clerk of the church. He expended much time, labor, and money, in the erection of the first Baptist meeting-house in that town. He was an intelligent, earnest, christian man; and died honored and respected by all who knew him. He d. Jan. 13, 1848, a. 78 y. 8 mo. 14 days. Mrs. Sybil Green, not less honored and respected than her husband, d. in Springfield, Nov. 4, 1854, a. 80 y. 9 mo. 2 days. He grad. at Brown Univ. 1804; and like his father, grandfather, and great grandfather, chose the profession of medicine; pursuing it for more than forty years with the highest reputation and with eminent success. He received a thorough literary and professional training; but his skill in the "healing art" was to a remarkable degree the result of observation and experience. He discerned disease with almost intuitive perception, and in rare and extraordinary cases was successful in his treatment. As a physician and surgeon he has had few superiors, and not many equals. He is still living in Worcester; acknowledged to be at the head of his profession in central Massachusetts. From that profession he has retired with an ample fortune. He will leave a name held in grateful remembrance throughout the large circle of his practice.

In 1854, he was elected Vice President of the Medical Convention of the United States, then holding its sessions at St. Louis, Missouri. He has no children.

He studied medicine in Rutland, Vt., and in that place commenced practice as a physician in 1824. After five years' practice in Vermont, he went to Philadelphia, attended two full courses of lectures and grad. at the Univ. of Penn. Returning to Rutland, he practiced five years more as a physician there; and in 1834, received the degree of M. D. from Midd. Coll. After this he removed to New York city; spent two years there in general practice; and then, going to Paris, availed himself of the opportunities afforded by the lectures and hospitals of that celebrated metropolis. After his return to this country, he was the first to bring before the medical profession, in a paper read to the New York Surgical Society, the method and value of topical medication for diseases of the air passages; a practice of which, we believe, there is now no dispute he was the originator. Since that time, he has acquired a high and extensive reputation, both as a physician and as a medical writer. His practice as a physician is supposed to be scarcely less extensive or lucrative than that of any other in the city. For many years he has been engaged as a lecturer. From 1840 to 1843, he occupied a professor's chair in the Medical College in Castleton, Vt. In 1846, he published a work on his favorite theme, the "Topical Medication of Diseases of the Air Passages." In 1849, he published a volume on the "Treatment of Croup by Topical Applications;" and, in 1852, one "On the Polypi of the Larynx and Oedema of the Glottis." In 1850, he united with several distinguished medical gentlemen in founding the New York Medical College; in which he took the chair of the Theory and Practice; and was elected to the Presidency, both of the Faculty and of the Trustees. In 1854, he, with his colleagues in the college, started the American Medical Monthly; with the editorial conduct of which journal, he is still connected. His children have been—

ADDENDA.

We are inclined to think that our ancestor, Thomas Green, 6 resided in Ipswich till 1649 or 1650; and that Henry Green, 5 residing in the same town 1642, was his brother. The other Thomas Green, we suppose, lived in Roxbury in 1640, and came within three years after to Malden; where his wife Margaret was one of the thirty-six females who in 1631 signed the petition to the General Court. One of these came from England in 1635; the other in 1636.

Ps. 9, 13. By VINTON MEMORIAL, it is meant that portion of the volume which preceded p. 269.

P. 15. For information respecting the families of Henry Green, 6 (69), Seth Green 6 (72), Timothy Green 6 (72), Phinehas Green 6 (71), and Amos Green 6 (72), see p. 30. This information was not received till after p. 15, was printed.

ERRATA.

After the early part of the preceding sketch had been printed, some information was received in reference to six additional families, (p. 30) which necessitated a readjustment of the consecutive numbering, on the left hand of several pages. Hence the following references became false, and should be corrected by the reader.

P. 24. Ebenezer Green, [313] should be [304].

P. 26. William Green, [359] should be [476].
APPENDIX.

FAMILY OF JOSEPH HILLS OF MALDEN.

Joseph Hills was born in England in 1602; he was from Malden in Essex; came to New England as early as 1638; admitted an inhabitant of Charlestown 1638; admitted to the Church, Feb. 2, 1639-40; selectman, 1644; freeman, 1645; representative, 1647; speaker same year; we find him in Malden, after the incorporation of that town, in 1649, where he was the principal character and the first leader of the Malden Band; representative of Malden from 1650 to 1656; removed to Newbury, it is not known exactly when, but probably in 1654; representative of Newbury, 1667; several years Assistant, equivalent to the modern Councillor and Senator; died at Newbury, Feb. 5, 1687-8, in his 88th year. He added an s to his name to distinguish it from the numerous Hills families in the Colony. He was one of the few lawyers in the Colony; and to him the jurisprudence of the colony is said to have been specially indebted. Johnson represents him as "rising to be the law of the country in order." His name often occurs in legal proceedings.

He married—1. Rose Dunster, sister of Rev. Henry Dunster, first President of Harvard College. She d. at Malden, March 1, 1650-1.

3. Helen Atkinson, dau. of Hugh Atkinson, of Kendall, in the County of Westmorland, England. Marriage ceremony, Jan. 1655-6, performed by Jos. Hill, l. c., by himself, for which he was admonished by the County Court, April 1, and fined 5s.

4. Ann, widow of Henry Lunt, m. at Newbury, March 6, 1664-5.

The children of Joseph Hills were—

Joseph, prob. b. in England; m. Hannah Smith, Nov. 1655.

Rebecca, prob. b. in England; m. Thomas Great, Jr., abt. 1658. [Child: 1. Lampton, b. July 27, 1659, m. Elizabeth Godwick, Malden, Nov. 11, 1677.]

Wells, b. living at the date of his father's Will, 1687.

John, b. d. at Malden, June 28, 1659.

Samuel, b. at Malden, July 22, 1660. Married at Newbury.

Newbold, b. at Malden, Dec. 10, 1659; d. at Malden, Feb. 26, 1663-4.

A daughter, [perhaps?] M. Blanchard.

Hannah, b. unm. and living at the date of her father's Will, 1687.

Dorothy, b. at Malden, March, 1658-9; d. at Malden, Oct. 1, 1662.

Abigail, b. at Malden, Oct. 5, 1660; d. at Malden, Oct. 8, 1669.

Joseph Hills, Jr., son of the preceding; m. Hannah Smith, Nov. 1655. He d. at Malden, April 19, 1674. Hannah, his wife, d. July 11, 1674. Their children, all b. at Malden, were—

* He probably lived in Malden previous to his incorporation, and while it was a part of Charlestown, and known as "Mystic Side." It is very likely that Malden received its name out of respect to him.

† Governor Bellingham also married himself. So did Rev. Stephen Bache of Hampton.

‡ Hon. George Lunt, now of Boston, is a descendant of this Henry and Ann Lunt.
APPENDIX.

Elizabeth, b. 1661; m. 1, abt. 1682, William Green, b. 1661, son of Capt. William Green of Malden. [GREEN, 22.] William Green, d. March 21, 1690-1, a. 29. 2, Aug. 25, 1691, Capt. John Lynde, son of Ensign Thomas Lynde (b. in Eng. abt. 1516), who was son of Dea. Thomas Lynde of Charlestown. [GREEN, 33.] She d. Jan. 29, 1698-9. After her death, Capt. Lynde had a second wife, Judith, widow of Jospeh Bucknam of Malden.

John, b. March, 1666.

Dorothy, b. April 13, 1667.

Samuel, b. Dec. 1667.

The Will of Joseph Hills is dated Sept. 14, 1687. Proved at Ipswich, March 14, 1687-8. Sealed and recorded at Boston, March 25, 1687-8. It is recorded Lib. 10, fol. 241, in Suffolk Probate Records. Its existence there is supposed to be accounted for by the fact, that Sir Edmond Andros, among many other acts of arbitrary power, obliged the people of the whole Colony of Massachusetts Bay to have their Wills recorded at Boston.

Joseph Hills describes himself as "late of Malden, now of Newbury;" but in the Probate he is called "Joseph Hills of Malden." [He died in Newbury; for he makes a bequest to "this town of Newbury." He speaks of his wife Ann, his sons Gershom, Wait, and Samuel, as then living; his daughter, Hannah, also living and unmarried; and his grandchildren Hannah and Elizabeth Blanchard, Hannah Winter, and Samuel Green. To each of the two last he gives forty-five acres of upland, and five of meadow out of his farm in Dunstable. He gives forty shillings to "this town of Newbury" for the purchase of a bell for the meeting-house, on condition that the inhabitants make it up to thirty pounds or more, within three years after his decease. His son Samuel Hills and son-in-law Abiel Long are made executors; the overseers of the Will were Lieut. Tristram Coffin and Capt. Daniel Pierce. These four lived and died in Newbury.

Joshua Coffin, Esq., the historian of Newbury, who is perfectly at home in such matters, says, in a letter to me respecting this Will:—"I am satisfied that Vinton is the right name; if the original is in existence, you will probably find Vinton and not Winter in it." I have made a thorough search for the original among the old files of the Suffolk Probate Registry, but it is nowhere to be found.
I. Christian Names of the Greens.

YOUNG CHILDREN ARE OMITTED.

The figures before each name denote the year of birth; the figures after the name denote the consecutive number under which the birth is recorded. The interrogation (?) expresses doubt.

II. Names of persons who have married descendants of Thomas Green.

The year of intermarriage, when known to the compiler, precedes the name. The figures after the name denote the consecutive number under which the descendant is recorded with whom the marriage was contracted. The interrogation point (?) implies uncertainty.
