Scope and Content Note

The papers of Eli T. Sheppard span the years 1872-1924, with the bulk of the material dated 1872-1880. The collection includes correspondence, memoranda, reports, writings and notes on Americans in China, and printed matter. The papers focus on consular and diplomatic affairs in China, 1872-1876, and on protocol or legal matters arising from the commerce between Japan and other nations, 1876-1880. Sheppard resigned his appointment to the Japanese foreign office in 1880 and moved to San Francisco. He published several treatises upon consular service and extraterritorial jurisdiction.

Arrangement of the Papers

This collection is arranged chronologically according to Sheppard's employment, followed by miscellaneous papers.
