Administrative Information

Provenance

The papers of A. Hildebrandt, German writer on aeronautical subjects, pioneer in aviation, and the first European to support the experiments of Wilbur and Orville Wright, were received in two collections. The first was purchased for the Aeronautics Division of the Library of Congress in 1932; the second was received as a gift in 1947. The collection was transferred to the Manuscript Division from the Aeronautics Division in 1954.

Processing History

The papers of A. Hildebrandt were described in 1958. The finding aid was revised in 2014.

Additional Guides

The Hildebrandt Papers were described at the time of the second acquisition in the Library of Congress Quarterly Journal of Current Acquisitions 4, no. 4 (August 1947): 25-26; and mentioned in the Quarterly Journal of Current Acquisitions 12, no. 3 (May 1955): 121.

Copyright Status

It is the researcher's responsibility to determine requirements of domestic copyright laws and international treaties and conventions.

Access and Restrictions

The papers of A. Hildebrandt are open to research. Researchers are advised to contact the Manuscript Reading Room prior to visiting. Many collections are stored off-site and advance notice is needed to retrieve these items for research use.

Scope and Content Note

The papers of Alfred Louis Heinrich Hildebrandt (born 1870) extend from 1826 to 1943, with the bulk of the material concentrated in the period 1910-1930. A pioneer in aviation, Hildebrandt was a German author on aeronautical subjects and the first European to support the experiments of the Wright Brothers. His collection focuses on the history of aviation in Germany from the time of balloon experiments to the development of airplanes in World War II. Included is material on aviation sports, inventions, laws, meteorology, aviation societies, transportation, and other activities, both national and international, in addition to personal papers on his career and aeronautics. The papers consist of correspondence, notes, diaries, clippings, scrapbooks, pamphlets, periodicals, books, maps and charts, pictures and photographs, and indexes.

Correspondents include Albert, Prince of Schleswig-Holstein-Glücksburg, Patrick Young Alexander, Octave Chanute, Ernst A. Damm, Hans Grade, Hans Ravenstein, and Graf Ferdinand von Zeppelin.

Arrangement of the Papers

This collection is arranged alphabetically by subject or type of material.
