Scope and Content Note

The papers of Edward Otto Tabor (1885-1948) consist of correspondence, reports, speeches, notes, pamphlets and clippings dealing almost exclusively with activities of Czechoslovak-Americans on behalf of the Republic of Czechoslovakia during 1918-1948. Topics include Czech news, American relief to Czechoslovakia, Thomas Masaryk's birthday celebrations, Edvard Beneš, and the Masaryk Institute. The correspondence includes letters from Edvard Beneš, Alice Masaryk, Jan Masaryk, and other Czech officials.

Arrangement of the Papers

This collection is arranged largely as received, with various material located throughout the collection. In general, however, the collection has been organized according to type or subject and therein chronologically.
