

GERMANS CAMPING AND FEASTING AMID BELGIAN RUINS

GERMAN SOLDIERS CAMPING FOR A BRIEF RESPITE AFTER THE FIGHTING AT LOUVAIN
(Photo (C) by Underwood & Underwood.)

GERMAN SOLDIERS EAGER FOR WATER, WHICH IS SERVED TO THEM BUT TWICE A DAY

GERMAN OFFICERS ENJOYING A FEAST AFTER THE SEVERE FIGHTING WHICH WON THEM LIEGE

BIVOUAC OF GERMAN INFANTRY AMID THE RUINS THEY HAVE MADE
(Photos by International News Service.)

GERMAN FIELD ARTILLERY BEFORE LOUVAIN
(Photos by Paul Thompson.)

MAJOR GEN. BERNHARD VON BUELOW ON THE LEFT, Whose Successes in Belgium and on the Meuse in France Have Won Him Praises and Honors from the Kaiser