DUGOUTS IN THE HILL AT GABA TEPE, DARDANELLES, WHICH WAS STORMED BY THE AUSTRALIANS.
(Photo from American Press Assn.)

(Photo by Ames Studio.)

MISS DOROTHEA CAMP,
Debutante Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McKesson Camp.

LA PERROQUETTE--BY SERGEANT KENDALL,
DIRECTOR OF THE YALE SCHOOL OF FINE ARTS.
From the Exhibition of the New York Water Color Club Now Being Held at the Fine Arts Building.

(Photo by Juley.)

SKATING COSTUME OF KID, TRIMMED WITH DYED SQUIRREL,
Which Brought the Highest Bid, $325, at the Bazar de Charite and Revue des Modes Given for the Benefit of the French Wounded Emergency Fund.
(Photo © International News Service.)

ONE HUNDRED ALASKAN DOGS FOR SERVICE WITH THE FRENCH FORCES IN ALSACE LEAVING NOME FOR TRANSPORTATION BY WAY OF SEATTLE AND QUEBEC TO EUROPE.
(Photo from Janet M. Cummings.)