

ENSIGN
ABRAM KRYLENKO.

Formerly a School Teacher and Now Commander in Chief of the Military Forces of the Bolsheviki. So Far as Known This Is the First Photograph of Krylenko to be Received in This Country.

(© Underwood & Underwood.)

LOWER BROADWAY IN WARTIME—BY COLIN CAMPBELL COOPER.
From the One Hundred and Thirtieth Exhibition by the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts, Philadelphia, Which Opened Yesterday.

(Chappel Studio.)

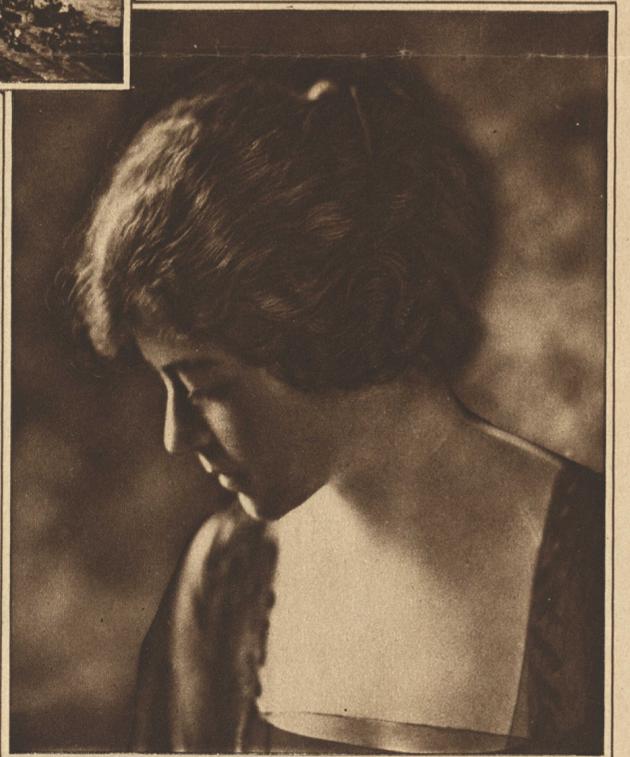

MRS. ALFRED G. VANDERBILT AND TWO SONS, ALFRED AND GEORGE, AT PALM BEACH.

(© Underwood & Underwood.)

GOVERNOR CHARLES S. WHITMAN OF NEW YORK, OUTFIELDER, In a Recent Match Game of Baseball Played on a Snow-Covered Diamond at Lake Placid, Lieut. Gov. Edward A. Schoeneck Being Captain of the Opposing Team.

MRS. SAMUEL A. LEWISOHN, Formerly Miss Margaret Seligman, Daughter of Mrs. Seligman and the Late Isaac Newton Seligman, Whose Marriage Took Place Yesterday.

(Berchuck.)

MRS. ELLEN A. O'GRADY, Widow, Mother of Three Daughters, and the First Woman to Become a Deputy Police Commissioner of New York City. She Will Have Direction of Police Work Relating to Women and Girls.

(Times Photo Service.)

GOVERNOR WHITMAN, LIEUT. GOV. SCHOENECK, AND THEIR COMPANION SKATERS ON LAKE PLACID IN FRONT OF THE CLUBHOUSE.

NEW YORK CHAPTER, STAGE WOMEN'S WAR RELIEF, STARTS NEW DRIVE FOR SUBSCRIPTIONS. In the Group, Left to Right, Are: Blanche Bates, Florence Nash, Chairman of the National Subscription Campaign; May Buckley, Treasurer, and Madge Kennedy.

(© Underwood & Underwood.)