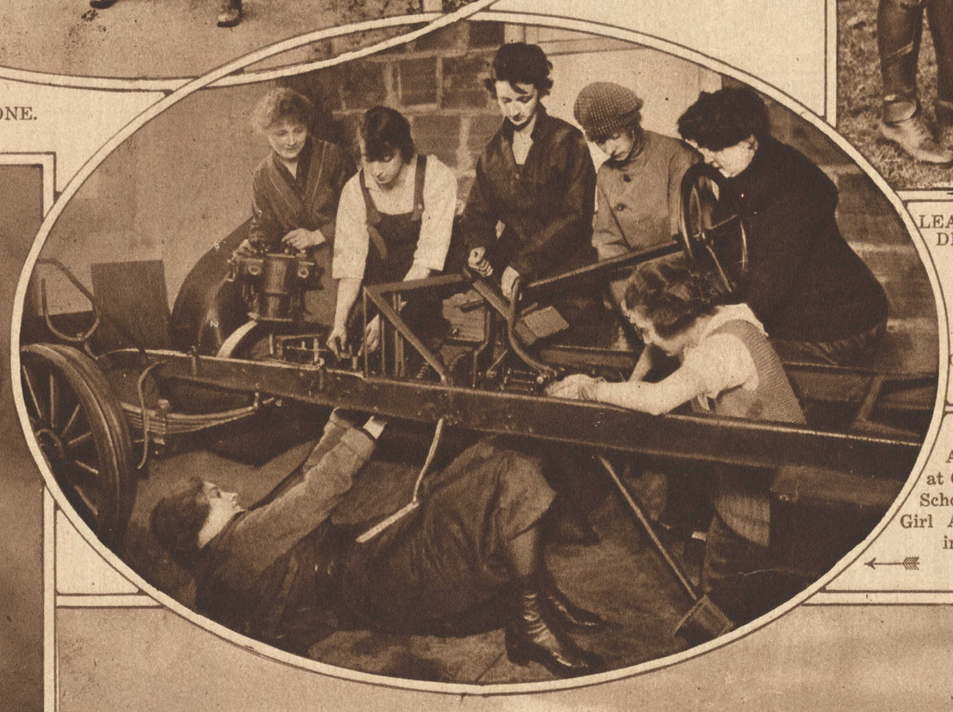
OUT OF THE WORLD WAR FOR GOOD AND ALL: A GREAT COLUMN OF GERMAN PRISONERS Extending Far Beyond the Turn in the Road, Marching to the Rear, Their Own Officers Leading, Following Their Capture by the French.

(© Western Newspaper Union Photo Service.)

AMERICANS, AFTER TRAINING BEHIND THE BRITISH LINES ON THE WESTERN FRONT, LEAVING CAMP FOR THE FIGHTING ZONE.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

LEADERS OF BASEBALL TEAMS DRAWN FROM WHITE AND COLORED REGIMENTS OF AMERICAN FORCES IN FRANCE CHATTING WITH THE UMPIRE BEFORE THE GAME SOMEWHERE BEHIND THE LINES.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)



A CLASS IN SESSION at One of the Many New York Schools for the Instruction of Girl Ambulance Drivers Volunteering for Service in France.
(© Press Illustrating Service.)

LEANDER GANSWORTH, a Descendant of the Famous Red Jacket, Chief of the Senecas, and One of the First Indians to Become a Y. M. C. A. Secretary on Special Duty with the Indians of the American Army in France.
(© Brown Bros.)

MISS VIRGINIA CANNON LE SEURE, Granddaughter of "Uncle Joe" Cannon, M. C., Whose Engagement to Capt. William Houghteling, U. S. A., Has Been Announced.
(© Harris & Ewing, from Paul Thompson.)

AMERICAN Y. M. C. A. SECRETARY REACHES AN ADVANCED AMERICAN ARTILLERY POSITION WITH SUPPLIES OF CIGARETTES AND CHOCOLATE.
(© International Film Service.)

MAJOR GEN. HARRY FOOTE HODGES, Commander of the Seventy-sixth American Division on the French Front. (© Bachrach.)