

VIEW OF CAMP JOHN F. HYLAN, SHEEPSHEAD BAY PARK, WHERE 1,000 POLICEMEN A DAY LIVE IN THE TENTED CITY AND UNDERGO STRICT MILITARY DISCIPLINE.

(Times Photo Service.)

A POLICE DEPARTMENT QUARTER SINGING CAMP-FIRE SONGS AT EVENING AT CAMP HYLAN, SHEEPS-HEAD BAY. (Times Photo Service.)

THE HUGE GERMAN CANNON, WHICH WITH ITS CREW AND ENTIRE AMMUNITION TRAIN WAS CAPTURED INTACT BY THE AUSTRALIANS OF THE FOURTH BRITISH ARMY ON AUGUST 8TH, REACHES PARIS FOR PUBLIC EXHIBITION. The Gun is 37 Feet Long, with a Bore of 12 Inches. With It Was Found a Pet Dog Which Was Immediately Adopted as Mascot by an Australian Regiment.

A SQUADRON OF FRENCH CYCLISTS LEAVING THE HIGHWAY TO ADVANCE UPON THE ENEMY ACROSS A HARVEST FIELD. In the Background May Be Seen a Battery of Camouflaged Fieldpieces. (International Film Service.)

OTIS SKINNER AND ELIZABETH RISDON IN "HUMPTY-DUMPTY," AT THE LYCEUM THEATRE. (© Charles Frohman, Inc.)

RICHARD BENNETT IN "THE UNKNOWN PURPLE," AT THE LYRIC THEATRE. (White.)

BIANCA SAROYA, Soprano of the Society of American Singers, Producing Opera Comique at the Park Theatre. (© Mishkin.)

ADA MEADE AND DONALD BRIAN in "The Girl Behind the Gun," at the New Amsterdam Theatre. (White.)