

ADMIRAL SIR DAVID BEATTY, UNTIL HIS RECENT RETIREMENT COMMANDER OF THE BRITISH GRAND FLEET, RECEIVING THE GRAND CORDON OF THE LEGION OF HONOR FROM RAYMOND POINCARÉ, President of the French Republic, in the Palais de l'Elysee, the Presidential Residence, Paris, the Ceremony Being Attended by Premier Clemenceau, Admiral Beatty's Staff, and the Highest Officers of the French Army and Navy. (Underwood & Underwood.)

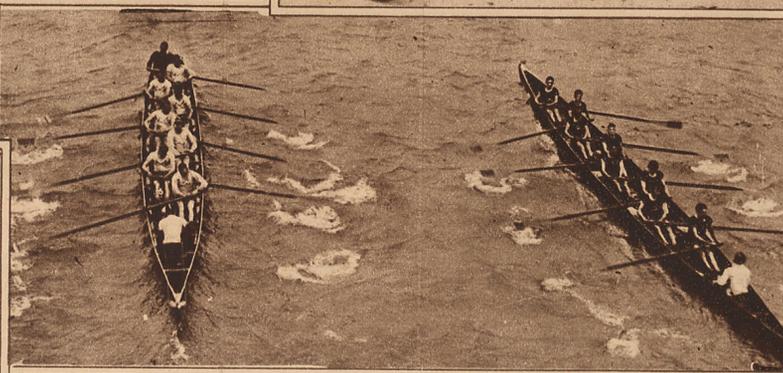

GERMAN OUTPOST AT VERSAILLES, LOOKING TOWARD PARIS: A SECTION OF THE PALISADES MARKING THE BOUNDARY OF FREEDOM ALLOWED THE GERMAN PEACE DELEGATES, WHICH HAS NEVER CEASED TO ANGER THEM SINCE THEIR ARRIVAL AT VERSAILLES, ACCORDING TO PARIS DISPATCHES. (© Underwood & Underwood.)

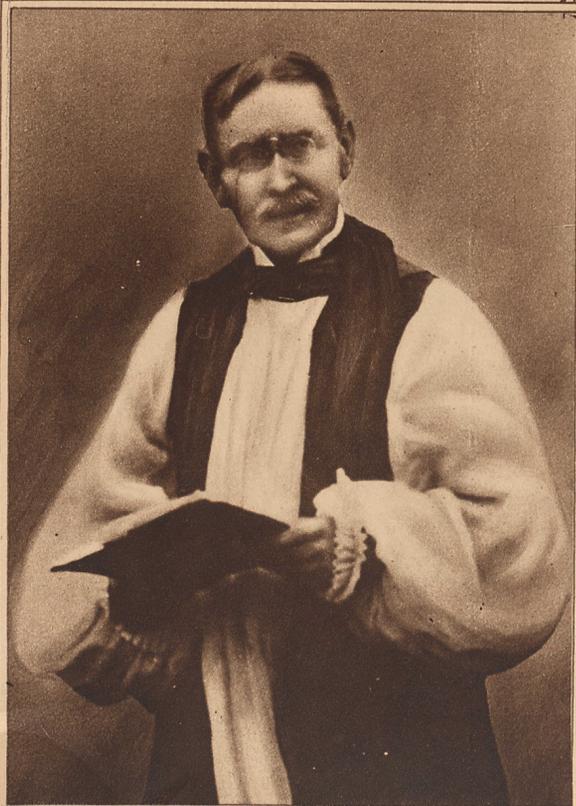

COUNT BROCKDORFF-RANTZAU (x), HEAD OF THE GERMAN PEACE DELEGATION, AND ASSOCIATE DELEGATES, LEAVING THE TRIANON PALACE HOTEL AFTER RECEIVING FROM PREMIER CLEMENCEAU A COPY OF THE ALLIED PEACE TERMS. (International Film Service.)

THE HOTEL DES RESERVOIRS, VERSAILLES, RESIDENCE OF THE GERMAN DELEGATES TO THE PEACE CONFERENCE. (© Keystone Photo News.)

THE AMERICAN AND NEW ZEALAND CREWS OF THE INTERNATIONAL "SERVICE" REGATTA ON THE SEINE Immediately After Having Passed Under the Jena Bridge, the Four Remaining Crews in the Contest Being Left Far Behind. (© Keystone Photo News.)

THE RIGHT REV. DAVID HUMMELL GREER, for the Last Eleven Years, Until His Death on Last Monday, Protestant Episcopal Bishop of New York. From a Photograph Taken About a Month Before His Last Illness, and Approved by Him. (Hall's Studio.)

SCENE ON THE SEINE DURING THE INTERNATIONAL REGATTA, WITH NEW ZEALAND, THE WINNING CREW IN THE LEAD, Closely Followed by the American Eight, Tens of Thousands of Allied Soldiers and Civilians Lining Either Shore of the River (© Keystone Photo News.)

TO THIRD GENERATION: THOMAS A. EDISON, HIS DAUGHTER, MRS. JOHN E. SLOANE, AND HIS GRANDSON, THEODORE SLOANE. (© Walter Scott Shinn.)