

The 3d Regiment, N. G. N. Y., marching into Camp Whitman. The 3d, two thousand strong, comes from Rochester, Auburn and other upstate cities and towns. Greeley Photo Service

Companies K and L of the 2d Regiment in their "street" soon after their arrival at Camp Whitman. Greeley Photo Service

With the Thousands of New York Guardsmen Who Made a Military City at Camp Whitman

The 2d Regiment pitching camp. The regiment musters 1,760 men and has a $6,500 motor ambulance, the gift of a sister of one of its recruits. Greeley Photo Service

Captain Rupert Hughes of the 69th and his daughter, Avis

Hughes, in front of his tent at Camp Whitman. Greeley Photo Service

Company A, 3d Regiment, lining up for mess immediately after reaching Camp Whitman. Greeley Photo Service

Men of the 2d Regiment in the initial stages of making a company street. Greeley Photo Service

Recruits of Company L, 2d Regiment, at Camp Whitman. Many of them were without a shred of equipment. Greeley Photo Service