Belleclair menus do not contain as many listings as formerly because we are doing our part in obeying the Government's injunction to conserve food. We still give enough variety, but knowing the tastes of our patrons as well as we do, we provide dishes that we are pretty certain will be all used up at breakfast, at luncheon and at dinner. We are eliminating waste without impairing our Food Service. We continue to give you good cooking of good food, and always will—and there will be plenty of it.

Hotel MARGARET
97 Columbia Heights, Brooklyn.
As much a part of New York as New York itself. Separated only by the wonderful East River, with its ever changing panorama—the view is one never to be forgotten. Overlooking that part of New York that cannot be seen from New York proper, the Hotel Margaret, situated on the highest point of land in Brooklyn, is only a twelve minute ride from the Gay White Way.
With every facility for the entertainment of the refined guest—with service second to no one of the Metropolitan Hotels—we offer a home of culture and homelike atmosphere to either the transient or permanent visitor to New York.
LARGE ROOM WITH BATH (two persons), $45 per month. TWO ROOMS

Columbia Grafonola
Elizabethan Design
There is no denying the dull brown glory of beautiful Tudor pieces such as this.
What an immense stride from Gothic is revealed, a revelation of artistic leisure to decorate, an agreeable confession of almost Latin susceptibility. The Renaissance, of course, had reached England.
