

EXTRAORDINARY GROUP OF INTERNATIONAL MUSICIANS, MOST OF WHOM CAME TO AMERICA BECAUSE OF THE EUROPEAN WAR, BROUGHT TOGETHER AT A DINNER IN THEIR HONOR GIVEN BY R. E. SCHIRMER. They are, Front Row, Richard Aldrich, Rubin Goldmark, Josef Hofmann, Alexander Lambert, Leopold Godowsky, Paul Draper, Carl Friedberg. Second Row, Mischa Elman, Sam Franko, Theodore Spiering, Josef Stransky, Louis Koenenich, M. Halperson, Rudolph E. Schirmer, Rafael Joseffy, Guillaume Stengel, Alfred Hertz, James Hunsiker, Victor Herbert, Mark Hambourg. Third Row, Daniel Frohman, George Maxwell, Richard Epstein, Kurt Schindler, Sigmund Herzog, Ernest Schelling, William J. Henderson, Leonard Borwick, G. Schirmer White, August Fraemcke, Walter Damrosch, Louis Svecenski, Sigismund Stojowski, G. Schirmer, Jr., O. C. Sonneck, Rawlins L. Cottonet. Last Row, Charles H. Voigt, Frank Laforge, Ferruccio Busoni, Andrea de Seguro, Ernest R. Voigt, Pasquale Amato, Ossip Gabrilowitsch, Cornelius Rubner, Ferdinand von Inten, Percy Grainger, Frank S. Hastings.

COUNT OKUMA, JAPANESE PRIME MINISTER, AND HIS CABINET AT THE TEA TABLE. From a New Photograph Just Received in This Country

MRS. GEORGE J. GOULD and Her Daughter, MRS. ANTHONY J. DREXEL, JR., Formerly Miss Marjorie Gould, Playing Golf on the Georgian Court Links, Lakewood, N. J.

(Photo © by Edwin Levick.)

(Photo by Pach Bros.)

DR. HARRY PLOTZ, the Youthful Bacteriologist of Mount Sinai Hospital, Who Recently Announced to the New York Pathological Society the Discovery of the Typhus Bacillus and an Antityphus Vaccine. (Photo © by Underwood & Underwood.)

CROWD GATHERED AROUND THE BISMARCK STATUE, BERLIN, FOR THE CENTENARY CELEBRATION OF THE FIRST CHANCELLOR'S BIRTH. (Photo by Paul Thompson.)