

RUINS OF ONE OF THE TWO ZEPPELINS BROUGHT DOWN IN THE LITTLE VILLAGE OF MANGOLD, ESSEX COUNTY, ENGLAND, ON THE NIGHT OF SEPTEMBER 23, WHEN A FLEET OF TWELVE ZEPPELINS RAIDED LONDON, KILLING 28, INJURING 99 PERSONS, AND WRECKING MANY HOUSES.

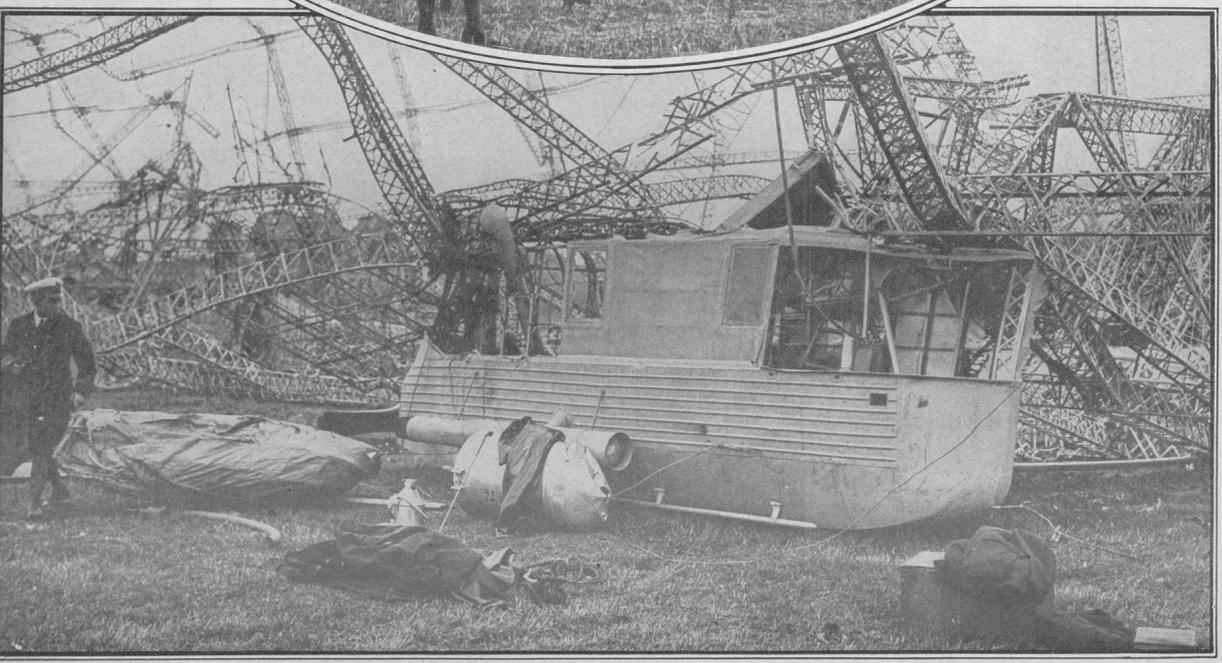

(Photos © by International Film Service.)

YOUNG CHICKENS FEEDING ALMOST UNDER THE WRECKAGE OF THE HUGE AIRSHIP.

ONE OF THE PROPELLERS OF THE WRECKED ZEPPELIN.

THE STEEL PASSENGER GONDOLA CAME OUT OF THE FLAMES WHICH DESTROYED THE COVERING OF THE ZEPPELIN ALMOST UNSCATHED.