

MISS ETHEL HARRIMAN, PROPRIETRESS OF THE MODISTE SHOP.

THE CROWDED ACTIVITIES OF A "BUD" FROM THE MOMENT SHE IS AWAKENED BY A HURDY-GURDY IN THE STREET UNTIL THE THEATRE'S FINAL CURTAIN WAS THE THEME OF "AROUND THE CLOCK," THIS YEAR'S ENTERTAINMENT WITH WHICH THE JUNIOR LEAGUE CLOSED THE DEBUTANTE SEASON. PARTICIPANTS IN THE MILITARY DANCE ARE SHOWN ABOVE. They Are, First Row, Left to Right: Colles Coe, Hamilton Armstrong, Andre Lord, C. Suydam Cutting; Second Row: Misses Fanny Baldwin, Alice Huntington, Sister of Mrs. Vincent Astor, Hope Williams, Ellen McCarter, and Jeannette Jennings; Third Row: J. Sloan, Miss Alma de Gersdorff, J. Stearns, Miss Marion Dinsmore, R. Hoagland, Geraldine Adee, and William H. Tailer.

(Photos by Campbell Studios.)

MISS AUDREY OSBORN AS A MANNEQUIN.

HELEN RUBEL IN THE HURDY-GURDY DANCE.

STEDMAN HANKS, THE ORGAN GRINDER.

PARTICIPANTS IN THE PANTOMIME "MINUET," AFTER HANS ANDERSON'S FAIRY TALE, "THE SHEPHERDESS AND THE SWEEP," WHICH THE DEBUTANTE SAW AT THE THEATRE. They Are, Left to Right: Murray Hoffman, Miss Helen Hoadley, and Francis Watrous.

MISS ADELAIDE WILMERDING AS A HURDY-GURDY DANCER.

MISS NINA PARIS as a Mannequin in the Modiste Shop Visited by the Debutante.