

PREPARATIONS FOR AIR BOMBARDMENT IN VENICE.

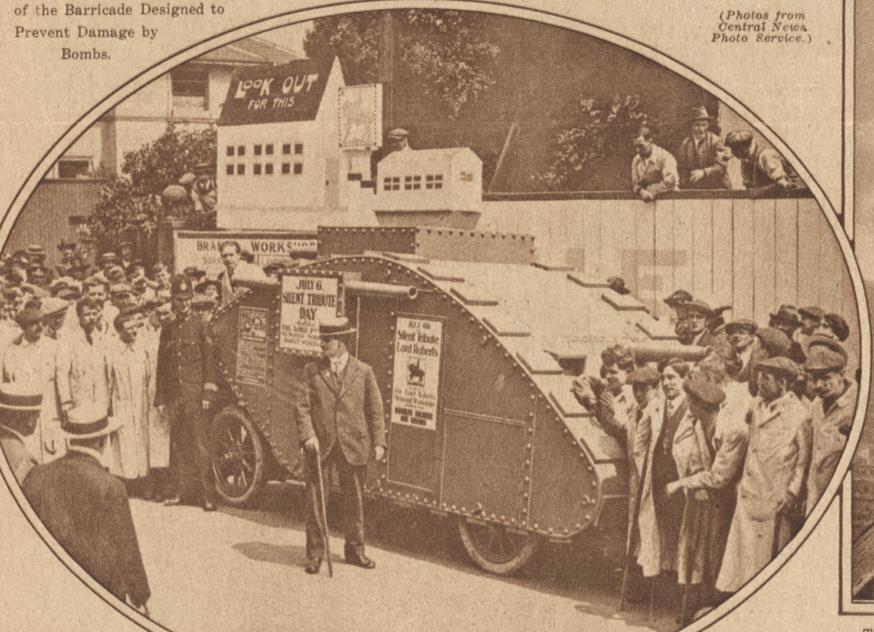

Entrance of St. Mark's Before Completion of the Barricade Designed to Prevent Damage by Bombs.

(Photos from Central News Photo Service.)

AFTER THE RECENT ATTACK UPON VENICE BY AUSTRIAN AIRPLANES.

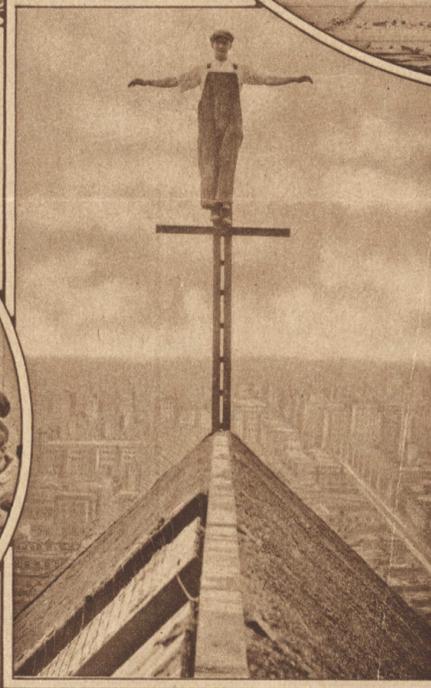

Interior of the Church of St. Maria Formosa. While the Sanctuary Is Filled with Wreckage from the Roof, the Altar Has Apparently Escaped Injury.

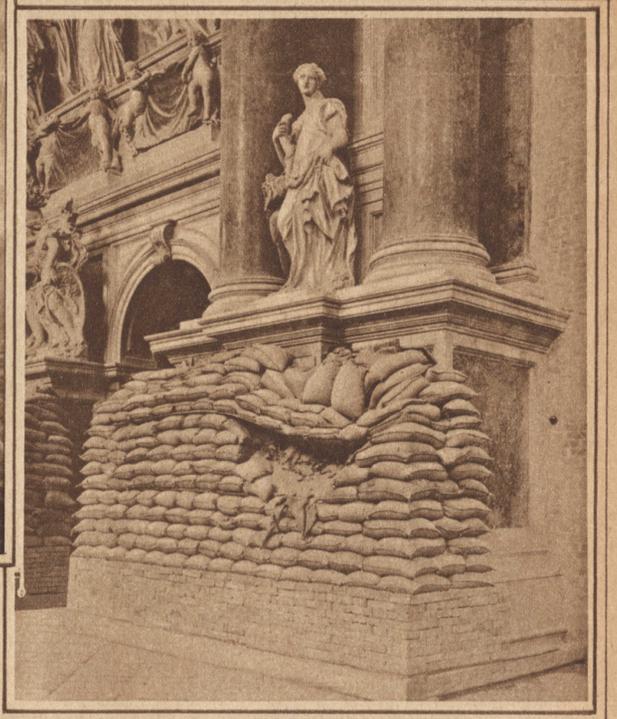

IMITATION OF WAR "TANK" USED ON LONDON

STREETS TO ACCELERATE COLLECTION OF FUNDS FOR DISABLED SAILORS AND SOLDIERS.

(Pictorial Press.)

THIRTY-TWO STORIES ABOVE THE STREET. Frederick Briney, Nineteen-Year-Old Apprentice Wire Lather, Standing on the Topmost Part of the New Bush Terminal Building in Course of Construction on West Forty-Second Street.

WHERE SANDBAGS PROTECTED STATUARY. An Aerial Projectile Buried Itself in a Barrier Which Had Been Placed at the Base of the Valier Monument in Venice. (Central News Photo Service.)

A TENSE MOMENT IN THE WESTERN AMATEUR CHAMPIONSHIP GOLF TOURNAMENT. Kenneth P. Edwards Playing from the Rough to the Fifteenth Green at the Midlothian Country Club, Chicago, in the Final Round on July 14. Near the Hole, Almost in the Line of Play, Stands Francis Ouimet, Who Won the Match from Edwards by a Single Putt at the Thirty-Sixth Hole. (Edwin Levick.)

FRANCIS OUIMET OF BOSTON, WINNER OF THE WESTERN GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP, AND KENNETH P. EDWARDS OF CHICAGO, THE RUNNER-UP. (Edwin Levick.)