

BRITISH TANKS LEAVING THE CAMBRAI ROAD AND MAKING AN AIRLINE, CROSS-COUNTRY ADVANCE TO JOIN IN THE ATTACK ON BOURLON WOOD

(© Underwood & Underwood.)

GERMAN HOWITZERS, CAPTURED BY THE ENGLISH EAST COUNTY TROOPS ON THE CAMBRAI FRONT, AWAITING REMOVAL FROM RIBE-COURT.

(© Underwood & Underwood.)

"MUGGINS," Of Victoria, B. C., Who Has Collected More Than $5,000 for the Canadian Red Cross. For Months He Has Stood Daily on the Walkway from the Steamer Docks to the Business Centre of Victoria, Barking At All Pedestrians and Rattling His Red Cross Box for Funds.

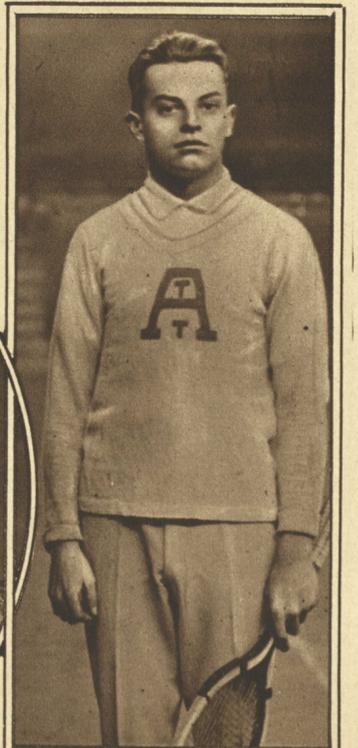

H. C. SYLVESTER AND A. F. NAGLE, JR., "SKATE SAILING" ON THE SHREWSBURY RIVER AT RED BANK, N. J. (Edwin Levick.)

CECIL DONALDSON, Of Brooklyn, Winner of the National Indoor Tennis Championship for Boys Against Abraham Bassford, 3rd. (Times Photo Service.)

ESTELLE WINWOOD AND EDMUND BREESE, IN "WHY MARRY?" AT THE ASTOR THEATRE. (Burke & Atwell.)

EDMUND H. HENRICKSON, Of Haworth, N. J., Winner of the National Junior Indoor Lawn Tennis Championship in the Seventh Regiment Armory Tournament, Defeating Harold Taylor, Holder of the Metropolitan Junior Championship. (Times Photo Service.)

SIR EDWARD CARSON PRESIDING AT A POPULAR SALE IN LONDON OF BRITISH "VICTORY BONDS," ASSISTED, ON HIS RIGHT, BY LADY CURZON, AND, ON HIS LEFT, BY LADY MOIR. (Western Newspaper Union.)

MARGARET ANGLIN AND LANGDON BRUCE, IN A SCENE FROM "BILLETTED," AT THE PLAYHOUSE. (White Studio.)